With the object of increasing production of Salk vaccine Canada has started importing rhesus monkeys direct from India. First shipment is seen above on arrival at Malton airport at Toronto. Federal Health Minister Paul Martin stated today the Canadian target is to vaccinate 3,000,000 children by early next year. (SNS photo.)

EAST GERMANS CUT BERLIN PHONE LINES

BERLIN (UP)—West Berlin officials charged today that eastern Communists have tightened their baby block and endangered lives by cutting elevated train telephone lines linking the city's east and west zones.

They said West Berlin railwaymen now will meet serious delays in reporting trouble to headquarters.

The Communists cut the cables without informing western stations in advance.

Tito, Khrushchev End 7-Year Quarrel

BELGRADE (Reuters)—Russia and Yugoslavia today signed a joint declaration officially ending their seven-year quarrel.

The declaration called for disarmament, a ban on atomic weapons, admission of Communist China to the United Nations, and a solution of the German problem in the interests of world security.

The joint declaration concluded the eight-day visit here of Soviet Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev, Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan.

It put an end to the bitter quarrel between the two countries since Yugoslavia's expulsion from the Cominform in 1948.

The two nations decided on closer economic and cultural ties, including the establishment of peaceful nuclear co-operation.

They also agreed to repatriate each other's nationals and to establish contacts between "social organizations" of their two countries.

$55 Million Job Fund For Ford Men?

DETROIT (UP)—A Detroit newspaper reported today that Ford Motor Company has agreed to set up an unprecedented $55,000,000 "job security" program for the CIO United Auto Workers.

The offer, while still far from the union demand for a guaranteed annual wage, would match the principle which Walter Reuther has been trying to set up for his workers.

The Detroit News, quoting a "high union official," said Ford had agreed to the principle of providing for Ford workers during periods of lay-offs. It said Ford had agreed to set up funds, over a three-year period, to pay workers who had exhausted their unemployment compensation funds.

NOT CONFIRMED

Neither the company nor the union would confirm the report immediately.

Meanwhile scattered wildcat strikes and "sabotage" on assembly lines in Ford plants across the nation punctuated the start of a four-day truce today in the CIO United Auto Workers' threat to strike Ford Motor Company.

While company and union officials made a "last-ditch" effort to reach agreement on a new contract in a Detroit hotel room, walkouts occurred at Ford's Rouge plant in Dearborn, Mich., and the Mercury plant in Metuchen, N.J.

Canada Profests

WASHINGTON (CP)—Canada has protested to the United States against a bill now being quietly pushed through Congress which would more than double the tariff on Canadian exports of hardboard to the U.S. market.

Rail-Stuck Royal Family To Take to Air

Charles, Anne Fly First Time

(From UP and CP)

LONDON—Prince Charles, heir to the British throne, and his sister, Princess Anne, will fly for the first time in their lives next Sunday.

The decision to let the Royal children fly from Scotland to England resulted from Britain's paralyzing railway strike which caught the Royal Family at Balmoral Castle in Scotland. The trip between the castle and London normally is made by train.

Queen Elizabeth will fly in a separate plane from the one in which six-year-old Prince Charles and his four-year-old sister will make the trip.

It is a customary precaution not to group top members of British royalty in a single plane.

Buckingham Palace announced the decision, which will be accepted in Britain as an example of democratic action by the Queen. Other parents also are having to travel with their children by means other than trains during the strike.

CANCELS PARADE

Only two days ago the Queen cancelled her June 9 birthday parade because of the strike. She also chose to forego her traditional ride by state carriage from Buckingham Palace to Westminster for the state opening of Parliament on June 9. She said she would ride by car, to avoid complicating London's strike-strangled traffic.

The father of the royal children, the Duke of Edinburgh, is flying back from Scotland to London Friday, so the royal children will make their first trip by air unaccompanied by either their mother or father. They will be accompanied by Lt.-Col. Martin Charteris, assistant private secretary to the Queen.

The Queen's plane will arrive at London airport at 5:30 p.m. (9:30 PDT) Sunday, 15 minutes before the children's plane arrives. She will meet them at the airport and drive with them to Buckingham Palace.

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Eden today held an emergency cabinet meeting as trade union leaders failed in an effort to end the strike, now in its fifth day.

A rail union leader declared there was "no immediate hope of any solution" to the work stoppage.

Airmen Reveal Trial Details at Honolulu Press-Conference; Reunited With Families

(From UP and AP)

HONOLULU—Four American airmen newly released from Chinese Communist prison camps rushed into the arms of their families today in an emotion-packed reunion that ended more than two years' separation.

The Korean war jet pilots said Wednesday they resisted "brain washing" during more than two years in Red China prisons but pleaded "guilty" to "intruding" into China and "provocative attack."

Asked if a confession was required at their trial, Capt. Harold E. Fisher, Iowa, replied:

"No, not at the trial."

Asked if they had to sign any confession before the trial, Fischer said after a pause: "I believe I'll wait until I see my lawyer before answering that question."

"That comment will stand for the rest of us," another airman added.

The four said there were attempts to brain-wash them but that all attempts were rebuffed.

CANADIAN DEPORTEE JUST KICKED UPSTAIRS

BOSTON (UP)—The health of the Canadian economy became an issue today in executive council debate on a pardon petition.

Arthur J. Ryan of Cambridge faced possible deportation to his native Canada in connection with a 1931 robbery conviction.

It's not so bad to go back to Canada," objected councillor Patrick J. McDonough. "The dollar's worth more up there than it is here. Let him go back and good luck to him."

The council voted to postpone action for a week on Ryan's petition.

Evans' Success On Giant Peak Hailed in City

Dr. Evans Known Here Through Participation in Hillary Lecture

Victoria had a special interest today in the news that Dr. Charles Evans had led a British expedition which has climbed Mount Kanchenjunga, in the Himalayas, the third highest peak in the world. (See story, Page 3.)

Dr. Evans was a member of Sir Edmund Hillary's party which described to Victorians at Memorial Arena in March last year how they made the ascent of Mount Everest.

Word of his newest climbing success was reported by telegram Wednesday from Darjeeling, India.

"WONDERFUL CLIMBER"

Dr. Evans is a close personal friend of Dr. E. C. Hoodless, 2749 Musgrave Street.

"It's marvelous. I'm so delighted," Dr. Hoodless told the Times when he heard the news this morning. "Charlie is a wonderful climber."

During the two-day stay of the Hillary party in Victoria Dr. Evans made several friends though he usually tried to avoid the limelight and public receptions.

At the Memorial Arena lecture sponsored by the Times he captured everyone's fancy by his dry humor.

An untold behind-the-scenes story about the lecture is that Dr. Evans had gone to dinner with Dr. Hoodless and when the time came for the lecture party to take the platform he was nowhere in sight. Led by Sir Edmund the lecture party was just about to take the platform without him when he unobtrusively slipped into line at the last moment and joined them.

Will Urge Cabinet To Cancel 'Freeze' Order on Costs

VANCOUVER (CP)—A B.C. Hospitals Association spokesman expressed the hope today that the provincial government will "change its mind" about its "freeze" order on hospital grants, which officials say will cause drastic cutbacks in service.

Percy Ward, executive secretary of BCHA, said a delegation from his organization will still seek more government financial aid despite Health Minister Martin's reaffirmed policy of holding the line on grants to the 1954 level.

The hospital authorities warned in a public statement Wednesday that wage boosts already negotiated this year will force staff layoffs and service cutbacks unless the government is willing to either increase direct grants or raise the $1 co-insurance.

"We think the premier and his cabinet will have a better understanding of our position after we have had a chance to talk to them," Mr. Ward said.

"The hospitals are being placed in an impossible position. The wage boosts were granted either through arbitration or because they were completely reasonable."

Mr. Ward said each hospital would face different problems if the cutback becomes necessary.

Services to outside groups who use hospital facilities, layoff of nurses and elimination of specialized services would be necessary, he said.

have always enjoyed and we do not wish to see it criticized. "The hospital administrators have been very worried by the continual criticism of the government and would like to know on what basis or whose advice the minister presumes to tell us how many employees we should employ to do a given job. Certainly it is not on the advice of the medical profession or the nursing profession or the hospital administrators' profession."

NO SUCCESS

"Those of us who spend all of our time worrying about these problems have tried to explain our position to the government but without success."

"It is not always possible to gauge the effectiveness of health care in dollars and cents. Take for example the recent discovery and use of the Salk vaccine. Certainly our decisions in this matter were not governed by financial considerations."

"We would all benefit if a sensible study could be made of the staffing needs of our hospitals rather than overall dogmatic statements which do not reflect the true situation for the information of the public."

"I know for a fact that the members of hospital boards have been most conscientious in meeting their heavy responsibilities. The quantity of hospital care in B.C. has shown a terrific increase because of hospital insurance but we should pay some attention to the quality of hospital care. After all, there have been many significant and complicated advances in patient care since the original 'freeze' order."

"Are our people not to have the advantage of these new findings? It is the policy of the Royal Jubilee Hospital to give the best possible hospital care to the people of Victoria and we are fortunate in having the support of our people to make this policy possible."

Gibson Demands Tofino Logger Appear Before Forestry Probe

Former Liberal MLA Gordon Gibson today demanded that Tofino logger Sammy Craig be called before the Sloan Commission to clear Gibson of "perjury."

Commission counsel C. C. Locke and Mr. Gibson were scheduled to confer this afternoon on whether a subpoena should be issued on Mr. Craig. The Tofino logging operator figured in Mr. Gibson's charge of "money talks" issuing of forest management licences.

The former MLA has charged that B.C. Forest Products "bought off" Mr. Craig by offering him 26,000,000 feet of timber if he would withdraw his opposition to the firm's forest management licence application. This morning's sitting of the commission also heard a bitter statement by Walter Owen, QC, counsel for B.C. Loggers' Association, the B.C. Lumber Manufacturers Association and the (continued on Page 29)

IN PARLIAMENT

Dr. McCann in Explosive Reply To Critics Over Dempsey Case

(From CP and BUP Dispatches)

Revenue Minister McCann, declaring he has "not anything to hide," says he is sorry tax laws compelling him to secrecy prevent giving his side of Ontario's politically-explosive Dempsey case.

"If I had the privilege, I could with a CCF motion for a commission of inquiry into his raise the hair on your head," he said Wednesday.

"But instead of that, I am obliged to sit here and to be pilloried..."

Dr. McCann made the statement angrily in reply to CCF demands that he disclose all details of his connection with the case.

The demands were coupled

Commission Proposal Beaten

The CCF motion was an amendment to a Progressive Conservative proposal, later voted down 137 to 49. It called for a commission of inquiry into the operations and spending of government departments.

The Conservative motion was backed by Social Credit and all four independent members. The CCF group voted with the Liberals, arguing that a commission with broad powers would mean abdication of Parliament's duty to control spending. The CCF amendment would have limited the inquiry to Dr. McCann's department.

The firework was touched off by CCF references to the Dempsey case and criticisms of Dr. McCann's position as a director of the Guaranty Trust Co.

The company probated the will of the late John Drohan, eastern Ontario lumberman who in 1951 gave $6,800 in campaign contributions to James Dempsey, Progressive Conservative member of the last Ontario legislature for Renfrew South.

After learning Mr. Dempsey had not reported the contributions, Premier Frost of Ontario withdrew his support of Mr. Dempsey in the present Ontario election campaign.

Dr. McCann said Fred S. Zaplitzky, CCF Dauphin, one of his critics, had taken "the mean advantage of putting on the record newspaper stories which say 'they are informed' or 'we have been told' and in which I told you upon my word of honor that there was not a word of truth."

"In 20 years in this House I have never heard of anything more despicable than the method which you and your seatmates there took to put this thing on Hansard."

Speaker Rene Beaudin intervened often in the debate to enforce points of order.

Seasonal workers unemployed at two periods in a year miss out on unemployment insurance benefits designed to help them, a member of the industrial relations committee said Wednesday.

Thomas Barnett, CCF Comox-Alberni, said that a number of the 10,000 loggers on the Pacific coast suffer because of this situation. Sometimes work was halted because of fire hazard during summer and heavy snow during winter.

When this happened, loggers who had exhausted their unemployment benefits during the summer layoff often were unemployed a month before they could qualify for seasonal benefits. The seasonal benefits aren't paid until after Jan. 1, Mr. Barnett said, and the winter layoff usually occurs early in December.

Opposition leader George Drew Wednesday lashed out at the Canadian National Railway's rental of its new Queen Elizabeth Hotel in Montreal to the U.S. Hilton corporation as "humiliating" to Canadians.

Drew said the Canadian Good Roads Association had to await permission from the Hilton corporation's New York office before it could lay plans for a convention at the Queen Elizabeth in 1958.

Correspondence released by the Good Roads Association here showed a request for accommodation for a convention of 1,200 persons in October, 1958, at the Queen Elizabeth was referred to Hilton's New York office for approval.

H. J. Nevin, general manager of the CNR tourist bureau, confirmed that the railway was referring requests for accommodation to the U.S. company in New York.

The CNR has leased management of the $25,000,000 hotel, now under construction in downtown Montreal, to the American firm.

The Senate Wednesday empowered its standing committee on tourist traffic to inquire into and report on "the activities of the various agencies concerned with promoting tourist travel in Canada."

The motion was moved by Senator Gordon Isnor (L Nova Scotia).

Destroyer Escort To Get Sea Trials

St. Laurent, First of 14 New Vessels, Gets Tests in August; Program Delayed

OTTAWA (CP)—The navy is planning sea trials in August for the St. Laurent, first of 14 new destroyer escorts.

If the trials are successful, the submarine killer will probably be completed and commissioned by November. But all of the 14 will not be commissioned for at least another two years.

The $210,000,000 destroyer escort program, launched five years ago, is behind the original schedule because of many minor snags in design.

A naval spokesman said today 2,133 different drawings have been required for the St. Laurent—more than 1,000 for the hull and 421 for the electrical circuits alone.

The delay in the program is referred to in the latest report of the national defence department.

"The program for 14 new destroyer escorts, the most complex and challenging program of its kind ever undertaken by Canada, progressed at a slower pace than had been anticipated; but compared to similar construction projects in British and United States shipyards, Canadian production has not been unsatisfactory, while the skills and experience being gained are expected to be of great future value."

The St. Laurent is being built by Canadian Vickers at Montreal. Costing $15,000,000, the warship is 366 feet long with a displacement of 2,000 tons. She will carry a crew of 270.

The destroyers will be equipped with homing torpedoes and mortar-type "squids"—an improved version of the depth charge—as well as standard guns.

Original designs had to be altered to make way for new sometimes larger equipment. The navy wants the most up-to-date destroyers in the world for its anti-submarine role.

The ships are being built at Montreal, Halifax, Vancouver, Victoria, Sorel, Que., and Lauzon, Que.

Their names are: St. Laurent, Saguenay, Skeena, Ottawa, Fraser, Kootenay, Margaree, Assiniboine, Chaudiere, Gatineau, St. Croix, Restigouche, Terra Nova and Columbia.

Escort Vessel To Be Launched Here June 21

An evening launching on June 21 is planned by Harold Husband, president of VMD, for one of two Navy destroyer escorts under construction here.

Hull of what will be HMCS Terra Nova will be christened by Mrs. J. C. Hibbard, wife of Rear-Admiral Hibbard, flag officer, Pacific Coast, at 8 p.m. that date, at VMD's outer wharf plant.

The other destroyer escort here is Fraser which was launched by Burrard drydock in Vancouver over a year ago and was towed to Yarrow's here where completion work is being carried out.

Terra Nova is 366 feet in length and is the largest fighting ship ever built on Vancouver Island.

Macaroni and spaghetti are made from durum wheat.

Britons Climb 'Killer Peak'

World's 3rd Highest Mountain Conquered in Surprise Dash

DARJEELING, India (Reuters). A team of British mountaineers led by Dr. Charles Evans today was reported to have conquered the mighty Kanchenjunga, "killer peak" of the Himalayas, hitherto the highest unclimbed mountain in the world.

News of their success in climbing the world's third highest mountain came two years, almost to the hour, after the dramatic announcement on the eve of the Coronation in 1953 of the conquest of Mount Everest, Evans was a member of the triumphant British Everest team whose member, Sir Edmund Hillary, actually reached the peak with Tensing, a Sherpa guide.

The second highest mountain is K2, 28,250 feet high and in the same area as Everest and Kanchenjunga. A European expedition climbed it last year.

The 28,146-foot Kanchenjunga was said by mountaineers to be a tougher proposition even than 29,141-foot Everest, the world's highest and 80 miles west.

All-India radio said the team climbed Kanchenjunga May 25 "and reached within five vertical feet of the summit."

BELIEVED LAND OF GODS

Evans had previously promised the Sikkimese people, on whose border the mountain lies, that his team would not set foot on the actual summit, which the Sikkimese believe to be the abode of their gods.

The expedition was supposed to be a reconnaissance for a full-scale British assault next year, and the team had not been expected to reach the peak.

The news of their success was brought down the mountains to Darjeeling by runner. Evans is Everest expedition, and himself the monsoon holds off.

Evans was deputy leader of the Everest expedition, and himself reached its south summit before being forced back by bad weather and faulty oxygen apparatus.

His latest trip was sponsored by Geographical Society.

The avalanche-swept slopes the "killer mountain" have claimed eight lives in eight expeditions. The highest point reached hitherto was 25,086 feet, by a German team in 1931.

In Melbourne, Australia, Hillary today hailed the conquest of Mount Kanchenjunga by "my old friend Evans" as "marvellous news."

"Kanchenjunga is a most formidable mountain and their victory is very notable one."

In Sligachan, Scotland, Col. John Hunt, who led the Everest team, hailed the climb as a "brilliant success."

"The ascent of Kanchenjunga has always been reckoned to be the most difficult feat in mountaineering, at any rate as far as the highest peaks in the world are concerned."

Big 3 Plan New Talks With Tito

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, Britain and France are reported ready to propose a formal conference with Yugoslavia to review a wide range of military, political and economic problems.

The three Western governments, officials disclosed, will officially suggest talks after Marshal Tito finishes his current conferences with top Russian leaders.

In advance of the conference, American Ambassador James E. Doleberry will return for consultations. The purpose mainly is to give his first-hand appraisal of Russia's campaign to woo Tito back into the Moscow bloc from which he was expelled as a traitor in 1948.

SCOTSWOMEN SCALE PEAK IN HIMALAYAS

KATMANDU, Nepal (Reuters). Three Scotswomen who went to the first all-women venture into the Himalayas arrived here Wednesday after conquering an unnamed 22,000-foot peak May 21. Stark, a speech therapist, Dr. Evelyn Camprass, the third member, could not go beyond 20,000 feet because of mountain sickness.

50 Executions, 450 Arrests Squash Revolt in Red China

HONG KONG (Reuters).—More than 50 persons have been executed and 450 others sentenced to prison terms in a Chinese Communist purge of what authorities called plans for armed revolt and sabotage in the northwest province of Shensi, say reports in Red China newspapers reaching here.

The reports from Sian, capital of Shensi, say the rebels and saboteurs belonged to "a large counter-revolutionary organization called the China Expedition Force."

They added that the I-Kuan-Tao, a semi-religious organization with a mystical secret society background—which is known in Hong Kong to be active in China's coast—eastern province of Shantung—was discovered last November and December in Shensi. More than 300 of its chiefs were Chiang Kai-shek secret agents and 29 of them were arrested.

The reports do not indicate when the arrests were made, but the executions are believed here to have taken place in April.

The newspapers say the I-Kuan-Tao members lived in caves and had tunnels, concealed rooms and double walls in more than 100 places.

Police seized arms, ammunition and Chinese Nationalist flags.

According to reports, the victim was disconnecting a derrick between a tow truck and low-bed trailer. The truck rolled back to pin Bowater against the trailer.

Bowater's home was at Extension, a few miles south of here. He is survived by his widow and one child.

3 Killed, 15 Trapped in Rubble As Buildings Collapse in Texas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—At least three persons were killed and eight injured when a downtown building collapsed on top of another and crushed it Wednesday night. Rescue workers dug through the rubble today searching for others who might have been trapped in the wreckage.

Early estimates said as many as 15 might have been trapped in a music store and beer tavern smashed by the falling building. The two businesses were in a 1½-storey building. The edifice that first fell was a vacant three-storey structure being razed.

Besides the victims in the building, an employee of the music store broke his collar bone while trying to help with rescue work. A fireman was overcome by gas and had to be carried out.

Witnesses said that when the building fell, it sounded like a "bomb" or "explosion." It snapped trolley wires and dumped rubble four feet deep in the street.

Bricks hit store fronts across the street.

TLC Backs Merger With CCL In New Million-Man Union

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP) — The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada convention Wednesday unanimously endorsed the terms of an historic merger with the Canadian Congress of Labor.

The merger will bring together 1,000,000 Canadian union members into a single organization, the largest labor body in Canada's history.

By its action the 600,000-member TLC became the first of the big four central labor bodies of North America to accept formally the provisions of amalgamation with their long-standing labor rivals.

In the United States, the AFL and CIO—counterparts of the TLC and CCL—are in the midst of unification negotiations.

Hesitation on the part of some TLC delegates at aspects of the merger terms were expressed at the convention, but the overwhelming majority of the 750 delegates overcame dissenters in a standing cheering vote.

A Familiar U.S. Worry

A FAMILIAR WORRY IS BEGINNING to trouble the United States.

It arises in part from the eye-opening display of Russian air strength in Moscow's May Day fly-past, in part from the apparent easing of attitudes in the cold war, and basically in the recognition of the American predilection to reduce military strength when the threat of war is not imminent.

These factors combine to produce a certain anxiety among our neighbor's students of world affairs.

Whether Russia has reached superiority over the U.S. in air strength or not, it is obvious that the Russians have vastly increased their power in that arm and have made quick and tremendous strides in the creation of weapons for intercontinental attack. There is a school of thought which argues the United States is still well in front in the development of air power and in the means of producing craft which will assure that lead. The fact remains, however, Russia is now in a much stronger position than it was in this field.

Against this background—and there appears to be no unanimity on the question of relative strengths—there looms a Big Four meeting which could call for concessions on both sides. Those concessions, the pull-back of Soviet forces to Russia in return for a like withdrawal by the U.S. and her allies from their zones of occupation, could be accompanied by a demand for the abandonment by the U.S. of its overseas bases—bases which place American air power within close and effective striking range of the U.S.S.R. What such a withdrawal would mean seems obvious.

The Western allies, in recent years, have learned a deep appreciation of the need for bargaining from a position of strength in negotiations with Russia. But how strong is that conviction?

The missing on that score could go deep. Assuming that easier conditions prevail, that the meeting at the summit becomes merely the prologue to continuing negotiations all aimed at playing down the East-West conflict, could the United States count on its people to preserve the degree of preparedness essential to maintain strength?

Would the United States repeat the procedure followed at the end of the First World War and the Second World War by rushing demobilization and turning overwhelmingly to the industry of peacetime production?

The questions are important. The doubtfulness of the answers explains a growing concern in the U.S.

It will be remembered that up to Korea the U.S. had been so busy beating swords into ploughshares that its military power was only a fraction of its potential. Korea lit the red light—flashed the danger signal. The conflict there in effect sent the minute men riding through the towns of the United States rousing the people to arms. Aroused and at arms, the U.S. has exerted itself effectively at the conference tables.

Because of American strength the expansion of Russian communism has been slowed, but only because of that strength which remains as a deterrent.

Now, with murmurs of peace in the air will Americans revert to their natural inclination to neglect military power?

The anxiety can be phrased in terms of the western story, a popular medium in important places: Will the sheriff, having holstered his gun after temporarily subduing the unruly elements, discard it entirely before he knows the town is tamed?

Dedicate the Sites Now

FINAL DECISION TO ALLOW the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation to proceed with a large housing development on the old Lansdowne airfield property will add a substantial community to this part of Greater Victoria. It raises anew the question of whether adequate provision is being made for playing fields for the rapidly increasing population.

Oak Bay's Carnarvon Park, to be officially opened Saturday, gives an idea of what can be accomplished with a little imaginative planning. Yet Saanich is woefully lacking in such facilities. Where in Saanich can softball, lacrosse, basketball, bowling, tennis or other sports be played, apart from the restricted areas of one or two school grounds? Yet what is Saanich doing about this situation?

When the municipality was predominantly agricultural, when open spaces, woods and meadows abounded within easy reach of every home, there was less need for formal sports facilities. Youngsters and adults at least had nearby wild land where they could indulge outdoor pleasures. But the whole character of Saanich today has changed.

Thousands of new residents have been added, thousands of new homes. Complete streets of houses are going up in all parts of the municipality. With this new residential environment there has been no corresponding provision of public games areas. Why not? Has the council not yet noticed what is going on?

The southern portion of the Lansdowne property, still not fully committed to housing, provided one area—perhaps the last in this vicinity—where Saanich could dedicate land for such a purpose. It is now planned as a commercial district.

Localities in other parts of the municipality should be given immediate attention with a view to setting aside strategically situated plots of adequate size. No development work need be done until finances allow. But properly located playing fields in the long run will prove much more beneficial than pool halls.

Another Switch Is Thrown

THE PUNTLEDGE RIVER DEVELOPMENT of the B.C. Power Commission, which was to be officially opened today by Premier Bennett, adds an imposing new unit to the hydro-electric power system of the provincially owned authority.

Operated in conjunction with the John Hart development at Campbell River, it constitutes an important adjunct to the Commission's Island system, feeding 35,000 h.p. into the network. It is to be noted that today's opening is ceremonial only—the plant has been in operation for the past six weeks, having been rushed to completion to supply needed power. A threatened brown-out on the Island was averted by the new plant's timely contribution to the system.

The practical results of the Commission's power provisions are to be seen in such news items as that which made headlines yesterday—the announcement of vast new industrial expansion at Duncan Bay. The power increment has been made possible without deterioration of major scenic or recreational assets, and thus forms a valuable addition to the Island's industrial potential.

A LITTLE SURPRISED BY IT ALL

The Tretchikoff Show Proves a Cultural Point

By J. A. LOCKHART

IT IS NOT SURPRISING that so many people in the east should have tried to discourage Vladimir Tretchikoff from bringing his paintings to the west and particularly to Victoria. Presumably the argument went something like this: "Victoria is a quiet city, a distant provincial capital where such things as contemporary art are ignored, where the giddy social whirl leaves the population little time to indulge such esoteric fancies. No one there will bother to even look at your work, let alone buy any of it."

One knows the pattern, and the reason for it seems to be caused by our modesty over what is unquestionably one of the most active centres of art appreciation and encouragement in Canada. This has been adequately proved to Mr. Tretchikoff and others skeptical by the tremendous number of people who have visited his exhibition and purchased prints and originals since his show opened here two weeks ago.

Behind this enthusiasm lies principally the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria, supported by an active membership of over 800 people, and the Norfolk Galleries, whose business as professional art dealers has flourished for a number of years. But this enthusiasm has not always been as keen as it is today.

Indeed one of the great figures in art lived and worked all his life in Victoria, tolerated by a handful of friends and acquaintances, and even today, over 10 years after her death, is only beginning to achieve recognition as a great painter, not simply in Victoria but throughout the world. Just three weeks ago a plaque was unveiled by Mr. Ira Dilworth, one of Emily Carr's great friends, at her birthplace in the house on the corner of Government and Simcoe.

Emily Carr had little patronage, and a cursory inspection of the lives of great artists shows few who could work without the support or interest of some influential individual or group. One has only to talk with Mr. Tretchikoff and observe his enthusiasm for Victoria and how anxious he is to return to South Africa and more painting, to see what a

The Loyalists' Town

FREDERICTON—The people of the St. John valley, who have long nourished a rich legendry and many local myths, take naturally to the new legend of Lord Beaverbrook. He haunts this ancient town like a genial ghost, and even when he is physically absent, as he usually is, his spirit broods over Fredericton.

The inner sanctum of the Beaverbrook legend is the magnificent new wing to the Bonar Law library at the University of New Brunswick, on a leafy hillside. Here the indefatigable Beaver has deposited the unpublished papers of Bonar Law, the only Canadian to become prime minister of Britain, together with the secret documents of Lord Bennett and David Lloyd George.

What a historical salad they make, for the future study of historians! Any scholar who wishes to research three separate eras of British and Canadian history must come, of all places, to Fredericton, thanks to its generous patron.

Hutchison

IT is not surprising that Lord Beaverbrook feels such a nostalgia for the towns of his youth. Fredericton is perhaps the loveliest little city in Canada because its founders, the Loyalists, were men with a natural sense of beauty.

They planted trees everywhere and the trees have grown into a noble forest, overtopping all but the spires of the churches, of which there is one at almost every corner, and beside them the broad, glistening bosom of the river.

But Fredericton has lately belied its reputation. When I was here twelve years ago and wrote, quite truthfully, that the town was a museum piece, where nothing had changed, at least since the time of Bliss Cayman and Charles G. D. Roberts, the natives, as I gather now, were a little affronted. They need not have been. The place was perfect to the last brick and steeple.

NOW it is turning into a city of twenty thousand people, its population doubled since the war and new houses rising on all sides. This suits the natives. To the visitor it is rather sad for an antique Fredericton may disappear.

The professors at the university, however, being philosophers, think that the original Frederictonian atmosphere will last out their time. I hope so.

So much has happened here that only the professors of history can begin to remember it—a French trading post in the eighteenth century, then a settlement of Acadians, then the first Loyalists from the Thirteen Colonies, sailing up the river and finding on the bank their retreat from the Revolution.

NEXT came Captain Sam Peabody. In a floating store from Boston, arriving every year as regularly as the spring. Then the great days when the pine forests of the St. John were cut and floated down to the sea, where the sailing fleets awaited them.

The passing of sail and the coming of steam almost smashed the economy of New Brunswick and it has been a long time recovering. It is recovering now, though it is still the poorest of any Canadian province.

New Brunswick has given its affairs into the keeping of one of its most typical sons. Premier Flemming, a quiet scholar and unaffected gentleman, was working when I saw him, on Saturday morning, in the queer old parliament buildings, then empty except for him and a secretary.

HE is not one to boast or to promise but he is confident that with the discovery of rich minerals to the northward, the growth of the paper industry and the construction of a huge electrical plant on the upper St. John, his province has turned a definite corner.

As an ancient New Brunswicker explained, the people here have to be "shown and sold" before they will accept any new venture. They cannot afford to gamble, since failure might mean disaster.

How queer it is, therefore, that such mighty gamblers as Lord Beaverbrook came out of this land to practice their talents elsewhere! And how strange also, on a much smaller scale, that the doctrine of Social Credit, another gamble, should have been brought to British Columbia by Premier Bennett, a New Brunswicker! Those who remained at home seem rather awed by the adventures of their sons in other regions.

MR. BENNETT'S followers in British Columbia are fond of saying that Social Credit is secretly penetrating New Brunswick, its only target east of the Ottawa River. No one I asked about this had ever heard of any Social Credit organization here. They laughed at the idea and evidently supposed that I had dreamed it up myself. It will take more than Mr. Bennett, Major Douglas and Mr. Aberhart to excite this sober province.

'God Bless America' But . . .

I enjoy reading Mr. Stuart Keate's "All Things Considered" and generally swallow them "hook, line and sinker," but there are times when I take them with a grain of salt.

I echo Mr. Keate's supplication "God Bless America" in his considerations of May 26, but despite several large grains of salt, partaken in an humble and generous spirit, I cannot swallow his assertion "that the United States has never attempted to extend its boundaries by force."

Does he suggest that the American General Montgomery was carrying an olive branch of Peace when he was killed at Quebec, or that the great U.S. statesman Quincy uttered a lie when on the floor of the U.S. Congress he referred to the American 1812-14 invasions of Canada and said: "Since the invasion of the Buccaneers, there is nothing in history more disgraceful than this war?"

In my study of American history I found a strong imperialism very evident. The people of the U.S. have been taught to "look outward." John C. Calhoun, one-time Vice-President, is reported to have declared this continent was meant for the "honest" American government, but I learned that "honest" government had not always honestly acquired portions of his continent, and although official armed U.S. forces were not always used, more subtle methods were.

Texas was taken from Mexico by Trojan Horse methods. Hawaii became American the same way. In each case an American-organized-and-led revolution formed a republican government and assigned the captured territory to the U.S. During the Hawaiian revolution the U.S. warship Boston actually landed a force of men to help the revolutionists. They were not armed with water pistols either.

The U.S. acquired the Panama Canal Zone only after a revolution had separated the Isthmus of Panama from the Republic of Colombia and organized the Republic of Panama. J. P. McEvoy, an American writer, admits the deal was made "by a combination of political shenanigans which remain obscure."

Mr. Champ (Chump) Clark, the U.S. advocate of a Canadian-American reciprocity treaty, said in 1911, "I hope to see the day when the American flag will float over every square foot of Canada clear to the North Pole," also that a large number of Americans who had gone to Canada "were fixing to bring Canada into the U.S. . . . exactly what they did with Texas." (See U.S. Congressional Record).

These events were in accordance with the doctrine preached by W. H. Seward, Wm. H. Everts and many other American public men. Hon. Andrew H. Green, one of them, truthfully observed, "As occasion offered the American people have insisted upon acquiring and holding territory when the interests of this country required it." While these things were happening average American citizens were loudly voicing their opinions of the "curse" of British Imperialism. Remember what they said of the Jamieson Raid?

The editorial "A Scientist is Chilled" in your May 7th issue, regarding the prodigious waste of its resources by the U.S. shows why that nation continues to "look outward." Canada has the raw material U.S. interests require but, as the political barrier is a problem, U.S. Congressmen Timothy Sheehan draws a plan and Senator Neuberger dangles "Canerica" before us, a mealy-mouthed presentation of an attempted expansionism hidden behind honey-smeared sentiments.

I am not anti-America—I like Uncle Sam. I visit him often and enjoy his visits with us. He is good, cheerful, generous, quite conceited, has a superiority complex. He is very much like John Bull but, unlike John, he lacks the soul cleansing art of self-criticism. Knowing his many admirable qualities, I'll join with Mr. Keate in asking God to bless him. Knowing his many foibles I am prompted to offer this advice: If you have a horse better than Sam's, guard well your stable.

R. D. MACLACHLAN.

MARKED for READING

Finally we addressed to the editor a curt and indignant note letting him know we had a low opinion of him and that he was about to lose two devoted readers. We added we would not buy his paper any more. Nor did we; after that we borrowed it.

J. L. Henson, now a well-known journalist, talking to the B.C. about his brother's failure to persuade an editor of his literary abilities.

GUIDE AND COMFORT

I would like to express my appreciation to the Daily Times for meeting a great need in publishing the Children's Movie Guide every Thursday.

Most conscientious parents recognize the need for careful discrimination in the influences to which our children are exposed, and it is neither possible nor desirable for parents to have to review for themselves the films which their children may wish to see. I for one, among many others, I am sure, am grateful for your collaboration with the Victoria and District Parent-Teacher Council in making this movie guide available to your readers.

(Mrs.) MONICA COOMBS,
PO Box 621, Victoria, B.C.

"FIFTY PERCENTER"

According to newspaper reports, Premier Bennett calls Mr. Archie Gibbs, MLA, "a 50 percenter" in referring to the Oak Bay member's so-called absenteeism in the last House session.

Well, Mr. Editor, Mr. Bennett should well know what a "50 percenter" is. While he was a member of the former government and after he "crossed the floor of the House" no member was absent more from the Legislature and missed more important votes than the Hon. W. A. C. Bennett.

Apparently, Mr. Bennett has not yet learned the old proverb, "People living in glass houses should not throw stones." "OBSERVER."

PARADE PARTICIPATION

During the last few days, a number of people have questioned why some of the larger firms in Victoria did not enter floats in the Victoria Day Parade, which was held on Monday, May 23, 1955.

In explanation, we would refer the interested people to a large advertisement, on page 6, of your Saturday, May 21 issue. In that notice, the names of 54 local firms were listed and, these establishments contributed towards the costly importation of the inflated rubber balloons that were entered in the Victoria Day Parade.

H. L. CROMBIE,
Managing secretary, Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

Paean to the Parks

The B.C. Forest Service has done excellent work in opening to the public many of the outstanding scenic attractions not only on Vancouver Island but also on the mainland of British Columbia. The establishment of parks, of which there are sixty-nine, and the provision of camping grounds with necessary facilities, so well and artistically done are to be highly commended.

Having just returned from driving the Fraser-Columbia highway including the Hope-Princeton section, some observations on Manning Park are called for.

In the heart of the Cascades, half way between Hope and Princeton 179,313 acres has been set apart for public enjoyment. The park was established as a memorial to the late E. C. Manning, Chief Forester, Pine Woods Lodge, a chalet of modern rustic architecture was built at an elevation of 4,000 feet. Mountains twice that height rise to north and south of the lodge.

The operation of the chalet is in the hands of a concessionaire with Mr. R. A. Pelletier as manager.

In the foyer and dining room of the lodge in the form of framed panels or pictures hung on the walls and standing on tables or pedestals are wood carvings of outstanding merit. They were executed for the B.C. Forest Service by three artists, Joe St. Pierre, a native of Quebec; Kaj Neilsen, a Dane, and Charles Rudolph Leyfert, an Austrian.

Two of the panels, each 4x2½ feet are worthy of special mention. They are by Rudolph Leyfert. Two riding horses with a woman and a man in the saddle and a pack horse are seen watering in the river which flows through the park. On either side are pine woods—the backdrop, snow-capped mountains.

The second panel shows the same horses and riders, in wonderful action climbing a gentle slope. These and other carvings of animals and fish are now being supplemented with carvings 16x16x2½ inches of all the animals, some seventeen in number, native to Manning Park.

These are being carved by Rudolph Leyfert in the workshop of the B.C. Forest Service at Langford from drawings by Frank L. Beebe, the well-known Victoria artist. When the carvings are completed they will make a most valuable and worth while exhibit at Pine Woods Lodge.

Also being made in the workshops at Langford are the tables, seats, signs and other items necessary and convenient to the visitor to the provincial parks, picnic and camping grounds not already equipped. As this excellent service extends its operation, more and more of the many beauty spots are made available to our own people as well as to the visitor.

Expenditure of public moneys in furthering such valuable services should have the endorsement of all lovers of the out-of-doors.

ALFRED CARMICHAEL,
1932 St. Ann Street.

Casual Incident

I ONLY saw them for a moment in the waiting room at the hospital, but I think I'll remember them all my life.

The wife was a darkish girl, bare-headed, and in her early twenties. Her clothes were neat and fairly smart. Her face was pretty, though rather strained and worn.

Her husband looked about 24. A bigish young man, ill at ease in a city suit, he didn't seem to belong in the waiting room at all. The whole place worried him, he could see, and he was plainly glad to leave the phoning to his wife.

The nurse showed her where the phone was—at the table in the corner. And we couldn't help hearing because the room was small.

***

"Is that Dr. X?" the young mother said. And then she added, "How's the baby this morning?"

There was a little silence while the doctor told her. The next question was quite shattering.

"Do you think there's any chance that he'll hang on?" she asked in a quiet, self-controlled voice.

"It's a bit difficult," she said a moment later. "We really should go back up-Island. My husband has a job, and he can't be away from work for long. We have another small child, too. I should get back to him."

She said goodbye so quietly and politely, and, as they left the waiting room, she took her husband's hand with unashamed affection.

Ruth

I am always filled with admiration of young couples who act well in situations such as these.

And, as a general rule, they do act well. Judging by the movies, radio television, and many magazines, we live in a most neurotic age.

But that's only a tiny portion of the truth. Every day, quite ordinary people, faced suddenly with the discipline of life, are meeting it with a patience and courage that raise them for the moment far above the petty irritations and ambitions of the daily round.

They don't get their names in the papers. For the most part, they lead uneventful lives. But they are there. Basically, they're good.

To my mind, these unsung, heroic little people are the backbone of the country.

***

Unless you've had a voyage on a big ocean liner you cannot fully understand the thrill one always gets out of it. And "always" is the operative word. Sure, the first time you do a long trip in an airliner, such as hopping the Atlantic, it's exciting. . . . the amazing thing of flitting from one continent to another two thousand miles away in a matter of hours, flying above the clouds, coming down through them to see the rich green fields of England laid out before you. But after the initial few times you've done this it soon wears thin. They flying becomes just a speedy way to get from A to B.

I remember the first trip I did in the Queen Mary. I was traveling tourist but since all the cabins were occupied in that class I was given a cabin in second class at the bow, taking my meals and using the public rooms and decks of tourist in the stern.

When I walked from my cabin to the sports deck it took me seven minutes! When you're on board, the size of those two ships is staggering. And you have just short of a week on the Atlantic to enjoy the pleasure of meeting and sharing the company of hundreds of people new to you, deck games to play, exhilarating walks around the decks, lashings of good food that you wolf because the sea air gives you such an appetite, movies and concerts, dancing each night to the ship's orchestra and a spot of romance on the poop deck if you're thus inclined.

Chief thing is that you lose all sense of time and you are completely cut off for the nonce from your own worries and those of the world around you. You feel literally carefree.

But that doesn't seem to be the case at all. You know, for instance, that the pre-war Canadian fleet of six 14,000-ton liners is being replaced by a fleet of ships not smaller, but much larger. First of them, the new Empress of Britain that will be launched by the Queen next month, is 22,500 tons. A sister ship is being built and two others probably still larger will follow.

In France they haven't said goodbye to the building of big liners either. They started this year to build a 60,000-ton replacement for the Normandie, which came to a dramatic end in New York in 1942.

LONDON LETTER

By WALLACE REYBURN

A Trip in a Ship

LONDON—I am one of those who love ships and cannot work up any comparable excitement about the sight of an airliner and the prospect of making a trip in it. Therefore, the Cunard Line has gladdened the hearts of us ship-lovers by announcing that plans are well under way to start building two new liners for the Atlantic run that will be as big, if not bigger, than the Queen Mary and the Queen Elizabeth (both over 80,000 tons).

Air-minded souls feel that all those planes flitting across the Atlantic (and elsewhere) have spelt the end of the big ocean liner as such. Feeling was that, faced with that competition, all the shipping lines could do would be to invest in some smaller, economical ships to ferry people and cargo across the Atlantic.

But that doesn't seem to be the case at all. You know, for instance, that the pre-war Canadian fleet of six 14,000-ton liners is being replaced by a fleet of ships not smaller, but much larger. First of them, the new Empress of Britain that will be launched by the Queen next month, is 22,500 tons. A sister ship is being built and two others probably still larger will follow.

In France they haven't said goodbye to the building of big liners either. They started this year to build a 60,000-ton replacement for the Normandie, which came to a dramatic end in New York in 1942.

Mayor Challenges
Passmore's Right
On Sub-Committee

Mayor Claude Harrison has questioned the right of Saanich Councillor L. H. Passmore to act on a Saanich beaches and parks committee sub-committee which was set up to deal with the development of the Beaver-Elk Lake park area.

Mr. Passmore, who was named to the sub-committee last week, has opposed a race track which has been proposed for that area.

The mayor said he has written Saanich Reeve Joseph Casey pointing out that Mr. Passmore was merely a substitute at the meeting for Mr. J. Fleming.

Reeve Casey has offered to remove Mr. Passmore from the committee if the mayor insists. The reeve is chairman of the sub-committee. So far he has set no date for a meeting.

PRAVDA EDITOR LIKELY SUCCESSOR TO MOLOTOV

LONDON (UP)—There were strong rumors in diplomatic and press circles today that V. M. Molotov may be on his way out as Soviet foreign minister.

Speculation on Molotov's future was revived by a report from Belgrade that the foreign minister had agreed to step down and that he will be replaced by Pravda editor D. T. Shepilov—a comparative unknown in Soviet politics.

Bennett Supported Forest Plan—Laing

Liberal Leader Says Premier Attacking Legislation He Supported in Coalition

Liberal Leader Arthur Laing today attacked Premier Bennett's statement that the former Liberal government is to blame for any faults in the forest management license system.

"This is just another of the queer emanations from Victoria,"

"The forest management license system was introduced by the Coalition government when Mr. Bennett was its strongest supporter," Mr. Laing said.

The Liberal party chief said: "He is the sole surviving supporter of the original legislation."

GOOD POLICY

Mr. Laing continued: "In the House in February, 1954, the minister of forests, Mr. Sommers, said this policy of forest management was the only good policy left by the previous government."

"One year later when his jamjar predicament began to appear, the premier said 'This policy was an unfortunate legacy left by the previous government.'"

"In announcing the Claycoquot Working Circle give-away, Mr. Sommers, on April 18 this year, said 'with one master stroke we have a new $25,000,000 pulp mill and roads as well.'"

"When the displaced small loggers cried out, Attorney General Bonner said he was 'shocked by their complaints.'"

Mr. Laing said the facts are "the Coalition government, which introduced forest management licences, carefully preserved the gigantic Claycoquot Working Circle for the small operator."

"Mr. Bennett's 'People's Government' has given it away. His is a Big People's government."

Modern Science Discounts Old Ideas

When I get into a wondering mood, I wonder how much we really know about the needs of plants and how much unnecessary labor we expend in the garden believing it to be essential to the plant's welfare.

In the light of modern knowledge a lot of processes we thought to be essential are now being proved worthless for their original purpose.

Barnyard manure, for instance, was supposed to carry all the food necessary to plants. Now it is considered the poorest form of plant food, but important as a source of humus.

But manure still gives better results than compost and chemicals and science is thinking that animal hormones in the manure may be the answer.

Keeping the surface soil broken to conserve moisture has been a must in gardening, but we are told it has no effect other than to lessen the weed crop, and this may lessen the competition for soil moisture.

Trenching and double trenching to a depth of three feet, and burying manure and compost deep in the soil has long been thought good practice. The trend today is to loosen the soil only to about 12 inches and to keep the humus in the top four inches.

In "no-digging" gardens the soil is not disturbed, and the compost is spread on the surface, and good results are claimed.

Yet our plants still grow regardless of our beliefs. Do they grow because of us, or in spite of us?

Salk Vaccine For 3 Million

OTTAWA (CP) — Immunization of at least 3,000,000 Canadian children with Salk polio vaccine is planned by next March 31, Health Minister Martin said Wednesday night. Upwards of 750,000 children now have received the inoculations "with complete safety," he said in an address to the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association.

"It is our objective to immunize no less than 3,000,000 children by the end of the current fiscal year."

Bennett Studies Way to Restore Tax-Lost Home

Arbitration Seen In Tax-Sale Muddle

Mrs. Mary Booth, who lost her $3,000 home at Westview in a muddled government tax sale, may see her case put to arbitration.

Premier W. A. C. Bennett, B.C.'s minister of finance, indicated Wednesday he may be willing to put the issue "to some form of arbitration."

The elderly Westview woman's home was seized for $16 tax arrears. It was sold to realtor H. J. Parry for $30.16. Mrs. Booth was not told her taxes were overdue, and spent $1,000 on repairs after it had passed into Parry's hands.

Following repeated attacks by CCF MLA Tony Gargrave, of Mackenzie, the government finally allotted $1,000 as compensation to Mrs. Booth. She turned down the offer, and the government said they would buy her house back from Parry at the same price.

Parry also turned the offer down. Premier Bennett said his advisers have told him $1,000 is a "fair price," but he indicated the government would favor some method of arbitrating the case.

B.C. Flood Looms As Snow Run-Off Delayed By Cold

VANCOUVER (CP)—A heavy snow pack and slow run-off could pose another flood threat for the Fraser River if there is a sudden spell of warm weather, a government official warned Wednesday. A Jock MacDonald, dikeing commissioner for the public works department, said the river's run-off has been less than normal so far this year.

The latest snow bulletin issued by the government shows the Fraser and North Thompson snow packs are among the heaviest on record for this time of year.

"Everything will depend on the weather now," Mr. MacDonald said. "If it stays cool, it will be all right."

"But if it suddenly gets hot then we could have trouble."

Ferry Switch Disliked By Labor Group

Action of two local car-passer ferry companies in "abandoning" Victoria to the backwash of adequate mainland service was condemned by Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council Wednesday.

Speaking for the Retail Clerks' Union, delegate John Aubrey said taking out the Chinook, vessel formerly operated between Victoria and Port Angeles by Black Ball Lines, means a tremendous decrease in tourist trade here, a fact on which retail clerks depended to a large degree for their livelihoods.

Canadian Pacific Coast Steamships, presently operating to Port Angeles, has refused to increase service either to the Olympic Peninsula or to Vancouver.

"We're left holding the bag," Mr. Aubrey said.

Deterioration of Victoria service was attributed by him to fierce competition between the two companies in what they claim to be more profitable ferry runs from Nanaimo to Vancouver.

"It is an excellent example of free enterprise," the delegate said. "It is enough to turn a man socialist."

City Boy Scouts Get New Flashes

Victoria District Boy Scouts will get new "flashes."

The flash carries a small Victoria District scroll above a representation of an old-fashioned Hudson's Bay Company blockhouse. It is black, green and white.

The new flashes will be worn by the Scouts attending the eighth world jamboree this summer.

IF IT HAPPENS — HE'S THERE Busy TV Cameraman Gets Life Of Vancouver Island on Film

By PHIL LEE Times TV Editor

As you sit relaxed and snug in your living room watching Victoria and Vancouver Island news parade neatly before your eyes on the family television screen, do you ever pause and wonder how it got there?

Obviously, it is neither by miracle nor by chance.

The reason, in a nutshell, is earnest, hard-working Paul W. H. G. Johnson, 2275 Dunlevy Street, 47-year-old boss of Soundview Productions and official cameraman for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation on Vancouver Island.

It has gotten now so that any city or island event isn't worthy of the name unless the iron-grey haired South African-born Mr. Johnson, his camera and battery of lights are present. Quite literally, as far as television is concerned, this clipped-voiced man has become the eyes and ears of Vancouver Island.

TAKES RISKS LIGHTLY

It was Mr. Johnson who flew through high winds in a light plane to capture on film the heeling Swiftsure yacht.

It was his camera that followed the Frobithe and speedboat classics. Whenever the Strait swimmers strike out into the bitter dawn or black of the night Mr. Johnson is there also. He is a man who would do anything for the proper "angle," willingly risking bruises and broken bones to film the rigger high up on the lofty Douglas fir, or a sailor clinging to a swaying mast.

Of course, it is not always so exciting. There are the more prosaic, although equally important, jobs needed by Vancouver's CBUT.

Being the seat of the provincial government, Victoria's political news keeps Mr. Johnson's cameras busy recording the deeds and words of B.C. statesmen. Premier W. A. C. Bennett and his ministers are often the focus of his attentions.

PASSING PARADE

Then there are the everyday events of the year. For instance, he recorded the graduation ceremonies of the Jubilee Hospital nurses, a smorgasbord at the Empress Hotel, the opening of new schools, the Industrial fair, the Times-sponsored golf tourney, girls' ice hockey, the Victoria Day parade and a host of other local and island scenes that are considered newsworthy for all British Columbians within viewing range of Channel 2.

The completed films, usually accompanied by covering articles clipped from the Times, are then rushed to Vancouver the quickest way possible, by air or by boat, depending upon the time of day. It is not unusual for events to appear on Channel 2 the same day they happened. More usually, however, they appear the day following.

ISLAND BOOSTER

Warm admirers of Cameraman Johnson's work are members of the local Chamber of Commerce. Both George Warren, publicity commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, and Cy Porter, secretary of the Tourist Trade Group and assistant secretary of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, see in his films invaluable aid in enticing mainland British Columbians and American adherents of Channel 2 to visit the Island.

Both stressed the high standard of Mr. Johnson's work and paid particular tribute to him for filming such local attraction for TV as the Sunset ceremonies, the daffodil and holly projects, as well as the Inner Harbor Showboat tourist attraction.

Born in Durban, South Africa in 1908, Mr. Johnson was schooled in England and South Africa. He is the son of the late Frederick William Johnson, MBE, noted Indian and African police officer, diplomat and inventor of a First World War fuses testing machine that saved thousands of lives. Mr. Johnson Senior died in Vancouver in 1953.

COVERS PROVINCE

By training as well as by inclination Mr. Johnson is well-equipped to cover Island events for he knows B.C. intimately. In 1950 he spent two weeks filming the motion picture short "Flying Surveyors" on the B.C.-Alaska boundary near Bowser Lake for the B.C. Forest Service. In turn he has been prospector and forest ranger, serving in the Coquitlam, Port Hardy and Pender Harbor areas.

In 1948 he came to Vancouver Island as public relations officer in charge of photography for the B.C. Forest Service. Later, when television started up at CBUT in Vancouver, he accepted the position as CBC cameraman on the Island. Immediately he resigned from the provincial government and founded his own small motion picture production business in Victoria. He now has three motion picture cameras, including one direct sound-on film.

HOLLYWOOD TRAINED

Former president of the Professional Photographers of B.C., steward of the Hollywood local of the motion picture photographers for western Canada, official representative of the Columbia Broadcasting System, Mr. Johnson received much of his training in the U.S. In Hollywood he took short courses of instruction at such major studios as MGM, Warners, Paramount and Disney's, studying the profession in all its phases, including camera, sound, editing and electricity.

Mr. Johnson married his wife Babs, a New Westminister girl, in 1939. They have two children, Don, 14, and Barbara, 10.

In conclusion, Mr. Johnson urges all Island residents to let him know of important events in their areas well in advance. This is so that he may be on hand to film them should they prove to be newsworthy from a TV point of view.

A SALAD TO TAKE TO THE PICNIC

Hearty Potato Salad. So satisfying when you make it with Best Foods—the whole-egg mayonnaise that blends perfectly with everything. Make up your favourite potato salad, then mix with Parsley Mayonnaise. Really good!

Parsley Mayonnaise: With 1 cup of Best Foods real Mayonnaise mix ¼ cup chopped parsley, 1 tablespoon chopped chives, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, ¼ cup cream or milk. Mix well—then taste. Notice how rich and fresh-tasting your mayonnaise is? That's because Best Foods real Mayonnaise is made with whole eggs, freshly broken, for a smooth, mild flavour. And see how well Best Foods blends, too—doesn't thin out. In fact, you can add up to 25% cream or milk, fruit juices or French Dressing to Best Foods, and it still keeps its smooth, creamy consistency. This means you can make Best Foods go lots farther—it's just like getting an extra quarter of a jar free.

ANOTHER VIEW

With investigations of professional boxing currently taking place in three states—California, New York and Pennsylvania, and the future of the sport apparently hanging on the result of these inquiries, it is interesting to get the slant of a writer close to the scene.

Harry Grayson of the NEA news service today explains the difficulties experienced by the New York committee in securing information from fight promoters and the defiance in which fight managers and promoters approach the hearings, despite evidence that boxing is rigidly controlled by a few.

Boxing Trust Would Kill Game to Bar One Fighter

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK (NEA)—The most astounding thing about the New York boxing investigation was the cocksureness of the little group of managers that has been running the game the past three or four years.

So certain were they of their strength through close alliance with the International Boxing Club monopoly that the leaders defied Chairman Julius Helfand of the New York Boxing Commission. They refused to testify, declined to produce records.

The smugness of the corrupt element controlling the International Boxing Managers' Guild was further stressed by the fact that they ran the risk of the all-out probe just to freeze out one fighter—Vince Martinez, third-ranking welterweight. Martinez, you see, definitely was out of work when he broke with his manager, Bill Daly, a ringleader of the trust, after his contract had expired.

So to boycott Martinez, who in their eyes was out of line because he chose to be handled by his father and brother, the handful of managers who dominate the business brought on an investigation that may kill the game in New York.

Racket Buster Won't Pull Punches

Helfand was appointed by Gov. Averill Harriman to rid prize fighting of the criminal element, and that is precisely what he intends to do. Helfand was assured of a free hand when he took the post. He has the reputation of not pulling punches.

Unless he obtains drastic results, the former Brooklyn racket buster will recommend that professional boxing be suspended until such time as it can come back with its hands clean.

Gov. George M. Leader gave boxing 90 days in Pennsylvania as an aftermath of the Harold Johnson doping case. He easily could have set a precedent for a much longer sentence in New York.

Cooperating with District Attorney Frank Hogan, Helfand has amassed a ton of evidence against the boxing ring.

It shows that "the mob" made unprotesting puppets of managers who weren't "in." It has to do with shakedown. There is contradictory testimony by officials of the IBC.

Carbo Linked to Suspicious Bouts

Frank Carbo and others with criminal records are linked to suspicious matches. There is testimony that Carbo guaranteed Angel Lopez, manager of Kid Gavilan, a return match with Johnny Saxton after their fight exhibition in Philadelphia.

Hymie Wallman, a leading light in the Guild, testified that he had known Carbo, mystery man of the scene, for 33 years. Jim Norris and Willie Ketchum admitted knowing him for 20. All professed not to know what he did for a living.

Asked to name the officials of the IBC, Big Jim Norris had to turn to his attorney, Truman Gibson.

Now Julius Helfand wants to know just who is running boxing... and why.

Majors Could Ban Club Plane Travel

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The day when the big leagues will draw up a rule against travel of entire clubs by chartered plane probably was brought closer by the near miss in which Milwaukee Braves figured two days ago above the outskirts of Montreal.

No matter how safe the air lines have become, especially on scheduled flights in the great new liners, too much is at stake for individual teams to continue to subject their entire playing personnel to unnecessary risks. It would take only one serious accident to a contending club such as the Braves to tear a league apart for years and cause inestimable financial loss.

The Milwaukee club was flying to Quebec for an exhibition game with its farm team in that city. There is a continuing debate over details, but there is no escaping the fact that the rented transport carrying the Braves had a brush with a jet fighter flown by a Canadair, Ltd., test pilot and that both craft pulled away to avoid a collision.

Disaster Chance

Nothing happened—this time. It might never happen. But it still seems almost inconceivable that so great and sober an industry as major league baseball continues to lay itself open to a crippling disaster.

Drobny Trims Bedard

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—Jaroslav Drobny, the Wimbledon champion, won his two matches Wednesday as play began in the northern England tennis tournament.

Drobny needed only 29 minutes to eliminate Michael Brown 6-0, 6-1 in his first match. But he had stiffer competition in his second round against Bob Bedard, Canadian Davis Cup player from Sherbrooke, Que., winning 6-2, 6-3.

BASEBALL MILESTONE RECALLED

Twenty Years Ago Today

'The Babe' Hung 'Em Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Twenty years ago today a baseball era ended.

Babe Ruth hung up his spikes for good.

It should have been a day of celebration. The Babe should have stepped down proudly, the cheers of the crowds who once idolized him ringing in his ears.

But it wasn't that way.

It was more like a tragedy. He had played his last game May 30 against Philadelphia Phillies. He went to bat only once and did nothing, so he retired to the clubhouse. That was the last time the Babe's name appeared in a major league box score.

He was with Boston Braves as vice-president, assistant manager and sometimes-player. His sight was failing and he was hitting only .181.

—It wasn't until three days later, June 2, that Ruth officially ended his baseball career—and he was beaten to the punch.

Officially, he quit. But he admitted later he was fired by judge Emil Fuchs, Braves' president.

Standing in the clubhouse, he told a boy to ask Fuchs to come see him. He told the boy to inform Fuchs he was quitting. He had gone as far as he could.

A few minutes later some reporters trooped in and the Babe asked them what was up. They said they were sorry and he asked them why.

They told him he had been fired. "So I got fired before I could quit," he said later.

Ruth is gone now, but he hasn't been forgotten.

DODGERS WIN; YANKS INCREASE AL LEAD

Robin Keeps Phils Alive; Duke on Homer Spree

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Without Robin Roberts Philadelphia Phillies could give Pittsburgh Pirates a good run for the National League cellar.

But so long as Robin persists in winning 20 or more games a season Phillies will stay out of the basement. Roberts has won 20 or better for the last five years and 1955 will be no exception if he continues at his present pace.

Phillies have won just 19 games as they ride along in seventh place, and Roberts has won eight of them, including a neat six-hit 3-1 decision over Chicago Cubs Wednesday night.

For a time it appeared Roberts might not make the charmed circle. He sputtered to a 3-3 mark May 7, hardly the pace for a 20-game winner. But in less than a month he has won five and shows a fine 2.30 earned-run average.

In fact Phils themselves seem to be snapping out of the doldrums. They've won nine of their last 11 games and, although just above Pirates in the standings, they are only four games behind third-place New York Giants.

After Phils scored two runs in the fourth, it was merely a matter of Roberts protecting the lead, which he did with no particular trouble. Ernie Banks hit a home run for Cubs in the fifth for their only run.

Elsewhere in the National League Brooklyn Dodgers licked Milwaukee Braves 11-8. Redlegs whipped New York Giants 5-2, and Cardinals slapped Pirates 6-2.

In the American League Cleveland Indians shut out Baltimore Orioles 5-0. New York Yankees won a doubleheader from Kansas City 3-1 and 6-1. Chicago White Sox edged Boston Red Sox 4-3, and Detroit Tigers blanked Washington Senators 9-0.

Duke Snider was the big gun in the Brooklyn victory, hitting three home runs and just missing No. 4. His fourth try hit the right field screen and he had to settle for a

Skip's Face Red, Irish Made It So

Costly Tripping Penalty Gives Victoria 11-6 Win

Shamrocks 11, Indians 6

By DENNY BOYD

It could be that Skippy McKay of Indians is still blushing as a result of what happened in Intercity lacrosse at Memorial Arena Wednesday night.

When last seen, McKay's countenance was like a strawberry, the same color as the lights that kept flashing on behind Mount Pleasant Indians' goal while McKay huddled in the penalty box.

McKay took on goatish characteristics as he supplied the break that allowed Victoria Shamrocks to lace Indians, 11-6. Indians have had the well, "the Indian sign" on Shamrocks this season, tripping the Irish in their only two previous meetings.

Landess Started the Onslaught

McKay looked properly mortified as he sat down in the penalty box and just a trifle more so as Lew Landess scored on the Irish power play.

McKay fidgeted self-consciously when Al Davies fired in a whip shot. And after Peeewe Bradshaw took two successive Nip O'Hearn passes and banked them behind Stan Joseph, McKay looked like a chap who was sitting on a bed of nails. Davies scored again before the cell doors clanged shut behind the unfortunate McKay, making a total of five goals the Rocks scored while McKay did his time.

That was the break that ripped it. The Indians couldn't recover from the impact of the outburst and the Rocks were as good as gold, even though they got only one goal in the last quarter.

The well-gained victory shot the Irish into a three-point lead over Vancouver Pilseners and Nanaimo Timbermen. With two victories behind them for the week, the Irish will bid for a triple in Vancouver Friday night when they take on Johnny Cavallin's heavy-handed Pils.

Geordy Johnston, looking more and more like last year's edition, threw a wall at Indians in the first half, allowing them only one goal, Bob Lee scoring with a shot that may have bounced in off Harry Irwin. It was 2-1 for the Rocks at quarter-time and 3-1 at the half.

If the goal did bounce in off Irwin, Hurryin' Harry certainly made up for it with two goals of his own and a net-like defensive job.

Landess, running his streak to five goals in two games, and Al Davies also picked up two. Bob Dobbie, after getting a crocheted job done on a four-stitch game inflicted by roguish Alf Brenner, fired three goals and O'Hearn picked up three assists in a matter of five and a half minutes.

Whitely Severson almost went through the boards after being carried off the floor on a stretcher but the holler-guy of the Rocks bounced back with a goal and two assists.

mark, including two home runs, in the four-straight world series sweep over Cleveland Indians.

NEW YORK (AP)—"I'm just lousy. What else is there to say?" That was Dusty Rhodes, the toast of New York last year, speaking today as he reflected on his paltry .130 batting average.

Pinch-hitter extraordinary, clutch hitter superb, the terror of enemy pitchers. That was the role the New York Giants outfielder played last year as he cut a swath through the National League.

This time around he has been a bust as a pinch hitter—one for 16 for an .059 average. His over-all mark isn't much better—seven for 34, including a home-run in three tries against Philadelphia's Herman Wehmer Tuesday night. Giants won the game 2-1 with no help from Rhodes.

"I have no excuses," he said gloomily. "I'm terrible."

Dusty clouted .336 as a pinch hitter (16 for 45) last year and climaxed the season with a .667

Boys Win Handily

James Bay Hotel, whipped Jordan River, 15-4, in a Colwood and District Senior "C" Softball League game at Windsor Park Wednesday night.

Winning pitcher King limited the opposition to seven hits, while the Hotelmen, led by Ken Hicks with a triple and double, pounded loser Layneuse for 10 safeties.

CAPITALS MEET EAGLES IN ISLAND BALL ACTION

Capitals and Eagles will each be gunning for their second victory of the season tonight at Athletic Park when they meet in a Lower Island Senior Amateur Baseball League contest.

Eagles will have a chance to move into a tie with second-place Duncan with a victory, while Capitals can move into third place if they take the decision.

In two meetings to date, the two teams have split, each winning by identical 8-4 scores.

Game time is 6.30.

TURNER BLANKS STUDENTS

Arrows Regain Softball Lead

Rod Turner won his third game of the season Wednesday night and pitched Arrow Furniture back into a tie for first place in the Senior A Men's Softball League.

The big redhead up in senior A company for the first time blanked Chinese Students, 5-0, in a three-hit masterpiece.

Turner pitched his best game of the season. He gave up a single to Jimmy John in the second, another single to Bobby Lowe in the sixth and, after Walter Derr's double in the seventh, he was the complete master.

Students managed to get only one runner as far as third base. That was in the eighth inning when two walks and a sacrifice pushed Bobby Lowe around to the hot corner.

Turner struck out 10 batters, including the side in the third.

Tonight Victoria City meets Navy. City can get within two points of first place with a win, while Navy seeks its second triumph. Game time is 6.30.

Santee Cleared to Run

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Running star Wes Santee of Kansas was given the go-ahead signal to compete in the Compton invitational track and field meet Friday night by local AAU officials Wednesday.

The matter of expense money remains something for Santee's own Missouri Valley AAU Association to handle.

Wednesday Santee, America's premier miler, emphatically denied published charges that he has been collecting excessive expense money for meets in California.

MANTLA—Casey Jones, 123½, San Francisco, and Bill Tinde, 126½, Manila, drew 5½. Tinde suffered accidental eye cut and bout was stopped and ruled a draw.

Leading Skier May Miss Olympics

QUEBEC (CP)—A broken leg may keep one of Canada's top women skiers out of the 1956 Olympic Winter Games at Cortina, Italy.

Monique Langlais, a 24-year-old Quebec City slalom whiz, already has been chosen for the team that will represent Canada in the games. But she says sadly, it all depends on the leg.

The attractive, young skier snapped the leg in mid-March at Stowe, Vt., just as she was nearing the end of her most successful season. But the Olympic selection committee, looking over her good record for last winter, picked her for the team and pinned its hopes on a quick recovery.

"It was such a silly accident," she recalled. "I wasn't even skiing fast when I hit a bump and fell the wrong way."

"The cast will be taken off in July but my doctor is afraid that I won't get my leg into shape by the end of January when the Olympics are to be held."

CLEVELAND (AP)—The fact that Bob Feller's name appeared on a waiver list doesn't mean a thing, Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians Wednesday.

"Bob Feller has no desire to leave the Cleveland club and we have no intention of letting him go," the Tribe boss said in an interview with Ed McAuley of the Cleveland News.

Several days ago it became known that a waiver list issued to other American League clubs by the Indians contained the names of Feller, Ralph Kiner, Vic Wertz and Art Houtteman.

Greenberg said he has protested to William Harridge, president of the league, over what he termed a "leak" of those names. The lists are supposed to be confidential.

The general manager said he has been getting telephone calls, and said the callers "naturally don't understand the workings of the waiver system. They want to know why we're getting rid of a great pitcher and a Cleveland institution. I assure them nothing is further from our thoughts."

He said everyone on the club, "including Al Rosen, Bob Lemon and all the others," has been on the waiver list at one time or another.

Greenberg did not go into details on how the waiver system actually works.

McAuley, however, explained some of the uses to which it is put. If a club wants to trade an outfielder, for example, it puts his name on a waiver list along with Feller and three or four "decoys." If anyone "claims" Feller, his name is quickly withdrawn. If anyone "claims" the outfielder, his name is withdrawn too, but then the clubs get down to bargaining for a trade. The "decoys" are simply to disguise which player is on the market.

BOSTON (AP)—Artful Willie Pep scored a fourth-round technical knockout over Joey Cam of Boston Wednesday night after opening a deep gash over his left eye midway in the third. Both fighters weighed 129.

Pep, twice former featherweight king, opened the cut, apparently on a butt, in a close-quarter exchange and was applauded by the 2,486 arena fans as he danced away and refused to take his obvious advantage.

Labor Council Scores Order on Hospital Wages

Withdrawal of Health Minister Eric Martin's wage freeze order to B.C. hospitals was asked by Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council Wednesday in its endorsement of a resolution from Hospital Employees' Federal Union 180, Vancouver.

Mr. Martin issued the order May 2, asking that hospitals base their 1955 wage scales on 1954 figures.

The union also asks that the whole question be reviewed at the next sitting of the B.C. Legislature.

CIRCULAR HIT

The resolution stated Mr. Martin's circular is tantamount to instructing hospitals to reduce service to the public, reduce staffs or break trade union contracts.

Wednesday, Mr. Martin did suggest that B.C. hospital staffs are too large and could stand reduction.

The employees' union noted that the freeze order came out "after the majority of collective agreements between the Hospital Employees' Union and various hospital administrations (for 1955-56) were finalized and salary schedules are now in operation."

The government has said it will not assist hospitals to meet increased operating costs due to salary increases and rise in other costs.

Premier W. A. C. Bennett said the government has "no intention" of boosting co-insurance rates as a possible aid to the situation.

Murder Charge Laid in Brutal Winnipeg Slaying

WINNIPEG (CP)—Winnipeg detectives arrested Donald Earl Hambleton, 25, on a north-end street Tuesday and charged him with the slaying of Harold Wolrich, a building caretaker.

Hambleton is to be arraigned in city magistrate's court today.

The arrest was two days after the 66-year-old caretaker's body was found after he had been beaten to death in the basement of a downtown warehouse office building Sunday afternoon. Police said Wolrich was "very viciously" beaten about the head with a wood clamp. He was believed the victim of a prowler who had rifled cash boxes in the building to steal $12.50.

City Soldier to Act For Indo-China Truce

Former Victorian Capt. L. W. Swift, 34, now with the Regiment of Canadian Guards, has been appointed to the Canadian delegation to the United Nations truce commission for Indo-China, his father, Lionel Swift, Glenshiel Hotel, said today.

He is the only officer from this area acting on the commission.

A 1938 graduate of Oak Bay High School, Capt. Swift joined the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry that year and went overseas with the first PPCLI contingent in the Second World War.

Wounded in the Italian campaign, he was sent to England and Sandhurst Military College where he gained his lieutenant's rank with honors.

After service in Germany, he returned to Canada at the end of the war as adjutant of the Winnipeg Rifles, the same regiment with which his father had served in the First World War.

He rejoined the PPCLI and was transferred from Calgary to the Royal Canadian School of Infantry at Camp Borden, and last summer he handled the Canadian officers' training course at Medford, Ont.

Capt. Swift's work with officer cadets drew an invitation to join the new Guards regiment, and after four months he was promoted to captain.

On the truce commission he will serve with Indian and Polish officers for a 12-month tour. Until his return to Canada.

Engineer Changes His Mind About Australia

Years of prejudice disappeared when Arthur Saunders, consulting engineer, spent nine weeks in Australia recently, he told the Kiwanis Club here Tuesday.

All his previous hearsay knowledge was wrong, he said.

While tourists aren't catered to as in Canada, hotels are of equal standards. He was amazed at industrialists' lack of knowledge of each other's countries. Newspapers in Australia carried little Canadian news except the sensational. But he said he sympathized with the press of both countries.

"They print what we want to read."

Easier Rules to Enliven Municipal Vote

Government officials today predicted a revival of public interest in municipal election contests in December, the result of relaxed property qualifications.

"A better cross-section of the population will be eligible to run for office," one official said. He predicted a wider choice for voters, especially in newly-developed district municipalities.

Young businessmen, veterans, and others who never before have been able to meet property regulations, are expected to enliven the municipal contests.

Relaxation of the property qualifications, endorsed by the Legislature in March, does not affect Victoria, New Westminster, or Vancouver, and a few other municipalities which may have special provisions with the consent of the Legislature.

Formerly, candidates for municipal office had to have clear title to the following assessed valuations: For mayor, $1,000; aldermen, $500; reeve, $500; councillor, $250, and village commissioner, $500.

An amendment to the municipal act wiped out the words "over and above all registered judgements and charges." In other words, the new law permits use of assessed valuations without deductions, as long as the candidate is registered owner of the property.

Changes will also be made to cover holders of agreements under the various acts dealing with the purchase of property by veterans.

Victoria city council has been asked to approve the changes, which would then take effect for the city election of 1956.

Gagliardi Plans 4 New Bridges

Highways Minister Gagliardi announced plans Wednesday for improving approaches to the north end of Lions Gate bridge, constructing four new bridges across the Fraser River's north shore and for speeding up other highway work.

At the same time, Mr. Gagliardi disclosed the engineering recommendations behind the government decision to span Burrard Inlet at the Second Narrows, and to build a suspension bridge instead of a rock-base causeway over Okanagan Lake.

Engineers are rushing plans for new approaches to the north end of the Lion Gate bridge, he said.

Changes will involve a new cloverleaf design, and a second parallel Capilano bridge at the same level. Mr. Gagliardi said he would call tenders as soon as plans are ready.

New two-lane bridges will be built along the Fraser's north shore at Pitt River, Harrison Lake, Dewdney and Deroche to replace existing outmoded structures and relieve traffic congestion there, the minister said.

Costs will total more than $3,500,000, and tenders will be called by Sept. 1.

The Agassiz Mountain Road will be reconstructed this year, he said.

Mrs. Mae Knight, past-president; Mrs. Grace Axelson, president; Mrs. Florence Foster, vice-president; Mrs. Merle Richmond, chaplain; Mrs. Barbara Walt, conductor; Mrs. Kathleen Saunders, secretary; Mrs. Ruth Radford, treasurer; Mrs. Bessie Grimsma, inside guard; Mrs. Mary Formeaux, outside guard.

Pins for past service were presented to Mrs. Renee Hall and Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Knight also was given a perfect attendance award.

The auxiliary discussed the possibility of a "Miss Ladysmith" contest being held again this year with the winner entering the "Miss PNE" competition in Vancouver.

Communism, Pensions Set for BESL Debate

Biennial Meeting Opens Monday in London; B.C. Man Included in Canadian Delegation

LONDON (CP) — Ex-service delegates from 33 Commonwealth countries and territories convene Monday for the week-long biennial meeting of the British Empire Service League.

Resolutions from the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and elsewhere covering such subjects as pensions, communism and immigration will be discussed.

To be opened by the Earl of Home, Commonwealth relations minister, the conference will be presided over by Earl Mountbatten, first sea lord, and delegates will be received by the Queen later in the week.

One Australian resolution asks for reports on action taken within constituent member organizations to implement the anti-Communist motion accepted at the 1953 conference.

They asked member organizations to ensure that privileges were not extended to anyone whose known beliefs and ideologies were in opposition to those principles being upheld by United Nations soldiers in Korea.

COMMONWEALTH PENSION

New Zealand delegates will seek a Commonwealth war veterans' pension. This reciprocal arrangement between Commonwealth governments would cover soldiers who had fought in one part of the Commonwealth and settled in another and who would be eligible after 20 years there for a pension if unable to work.

Eight resolutions have been submitted by the Canadian Legion.

One suggests that the United Kingdom government be approached again by the league about "some form of exchange compensation" for Canada-dwelling recipients of Imperial disability pensions, reduced by devaluation of the pound sterling.

ASKS FOR COMPENSATION

Another asks the U.K. government, in assessing income tax rates for Canada-dwelling recipients of British service and widows' pensions, to take into consideration Canada's higher cost of living and her lack of national medical and health services. The rates now are based on the lump total of Canadian and British income.

A third asks that aged parents living in Canada with sons or daughters since the Second World War become eligible for increases in British contributory old-age pensions.

Canada will be represented at the conference by Very Rev. John Anderson, M.C., Anglican dean of Ottawa, Hugh Sutherland of Ottawa, N.B., and Donald McTavish of Salmon Arm, B.C.

B.C. Recruits 64 U.K. Teachers

VANCOUVER (CP) — British Columbia faces a shortage of 300 qualified secondary-school teachers this fall, Dr. F. Henry Johnson, provincial co-ordinator of teacher education, said Wednesday.

In an interview Dr. Johnson said B.C. has recruited 64 teachers from Great Britain and hopes to recruit additional teachers from other provinces.

Teachers lacking full secondary qualifications would be used in junior high schools to fill the gap, he said.

Pastel Roadways Too Costly For Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A proposal that Los Angeles paint its streets pastel colors such as pink and mauve was made to city council by Miss Elizabeth Black, retired general manager of the municipal arts department.

She said it would beautify the city, cut down glare and reduce accidents.

The city engineer reported it would cost $50,000,000 to paint the 2,400 miles of pavement, using 17,952,000 gallons of paint.

City council looked at the cost Wednesday and rejected her proposal.

Chemainus Bank Staff Changes

CHEMAINUS — E. D. MacInnes, accountant on the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce here, has been transferred to the Brighouse branch, Lulu Island.

Ken Feurgutz, teller, will take his place. The new teller will be D. R. Hall of the Colwood branch.

Hundreds of persons broke police lines and mobbed movie star Bob Hope at the premiere of his picture "Seven Little Boys" at the Prince Edward Theatre Wednesday night. Four women were knocked to the ground. Police had to link arms to force a passage through the crowd for Hope.

The Bible on which George Washington took the oath as first President of the United States still exists.

14 SOUND BARRIER BUSTED; HOME OWNERS COMPLAIN

TORONTO (BUP) — The air force apologized today for a window-shattering blast that frightened people in Toronto's west end when a jet plane broke through the sound barrier.

"It was certainly done inadvertently," Air Vice-Marshal L. E. Wray said. "The planes are not supposed to break windows."

The city engineer reported it would cost $50,000,000 to paint the 2,400 miles of pavement, using 17,952,000 gallons of paint.

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Hundreds of persons broke police lines and mobbed movie star Bob Hope at the premiere of his picture "Seven Little Boys" at the Prince Edward Theatre Wednesday night. The Bible on which George Washington took the oath as first President of the United States still exists.

Seattle Comic Book Dealer Challenges Licensing Act

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — The U.S. first state law licensing comic book dealers will be tested in court here next week by a Seattle dealer.

Passed by the 1955 state legislature, the act outlaws the sale of comic books exploiting bloodshed, sex or crime.

The law requires wholesale and retail comic book dealers to obtain licenses, which the state supervisor may suspend or revoke if the dealer violates the law by marketing comic books depicting bloodshed, sex or crime.

The state supervisor said the law appeared strong enough to force objectionable books off the newsstands.

Welfare Body Seeking Family Court

Council Group To Hear Brief

A family court which would remove domestic troubles from the atmosphere of the police criminal court is being sought here by the Community Welfare Council.

Lloyd McKenzie, Saanich prosecutor and president of the welfare group, will present a brief on the question to the city council justice committee.

He told the welfare council Wednesday the family court should be separated from police court, and there should be emphasis on reconciliation as well as prosecution.

Recently opened juvenile court premises at the city health and welfare centre on Cook Street could be used for family court as well, he thought.

He felt there should be two judges—one to preside in court and one to attempt reconciliation in family disputes.

"If there is only one judge and he fails to reconcile the disputants, he would disqualify himself to judge the case in court."

Mr. McKenzie recently instructed a course in "Law for the Layman" at Victoria College extension department.

Aviatrix Sets Record

PARIS (Reuters)—Jacqueline Auriol, daughter-in-law of former French president, Vincent Auriol, has set an unofficial world air speed record for women of 1,140 kilometres (708.362 miles) an hour, it was announced today. Previous mark of 1,085 kilometres (674.187 miles) an hour was held by American pilot Jacqueline Cochran.

Voteless Indians Demand Freedom From Income Taxes

SARNIA, Ont. (CP)—The federal government will be asked to exempt all Canadian Indians from income tax.

A resolution passed Wednesday night by the grand council of the North American Indian Brotherhood asks that some 136,000 Indians be freed from paying income tax. They now are exempt only on income earned on a reserve.

Said president Andy Paul of Vancouver: "It's taxation without representation."

He said Indians are not permitted to vote in federal elections and can vote in provincial elections only in Ontario, British Columbia and Nova Scotia.

A three-day convention of the Canadian members of the brotherhood opened Wednesday at the Sarnia reserve.

UNIFICATION 'INEVITABLE'

Canada, U.S. Link Air Defence Forces

MONTREAL (CP)—Air Marshal C. R. Slemmon, chief of the RCAF, said Wednesday the United States and Canada are headed towards a completely unified North American air defence system with a single over-all commander.

He told visiting U.S. and Canadian aviation writers at St. Hubert airport that the two countries need a co-ordinated air defence system—a single over-all command—so that there can be no conflict in interests or in the orders of a commander.

"We are already moving in that direction," Air Marshal Slemmon said. "We have not yet arrived at it because there is no immediate inescapable need."

"But all the planning, development, selection for weapons and all the decisions are aimed at the ultimate position of a supreme North American air

French Protestants Hail Graham Crusade

PARIS (UP)—Protestants of all sects joined together for the first time in French history today to back Billy Graham's initial evangelistic crusade in a predominantly Roman Catholic country. Protestant leaders declared Graham's visit represented the first massive attempt at cracking French "indifference" to the Protestant faith.

The American preacher arrived by train from Nice Wednesday night. He will start a five-day series of meetings Sunday at the huge Palais des Sports.

The North Carolina evangelist, who recently completed successful crusades in Scotland and London, was greeted by some 200 persons who sang hymns in French.

Warehouse? Storage Garage? Indoor Parking Lot?

The answer: It's the car deck of the CPR's new all-purpose ferry, Princess of Vancouver. The largest and newest ship in the B.C. Coast Steamship fleet is expected to dock at Esquimalt early next week for clean-up before going into the Nanaimo-Vancouver service. She is bringing a cargo of English-built Fords, to be discharged at Vancouver. Photo gives an idea of high clearance of car deck, which enables Princess to handle "anything on wheels," up to and including railway box cars.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

Dear Mr. Roberts:

It gives me great pleasure to read that you have ceased to snarl and no longer recoil in horror when you see a picture of a DEAD fish.

I had heard and read of your annual "cry" concerning pictures of DEAD fish. Thus, I was leery in sending one of my customers in to your Sports Dept. to have his picture taken with a DEAD fish. The fish was to have been photographed alive but—well, here's the story.

I have had a special Oncorhynchus tshawytscha and O. kisutch LIVE tank installed in my guide boat. This tank is 3.8 ft. wide, 7.4 ft. long and 10.3 ft. deep. With a 3-inch gear pump it can keep a flow of water exceeding two gallons per minute flowing through the tank.

Upon netting a large fish I release it alive into the LIVE tank where I keep it content by feeding him, 3-inch pieces of wire if he is a Spring salmon, two tablespoons of Pard if he's a Dog salmon, a glass of V.O. if he's a Chum salmon, a half-pint of non-corrosive paint if he's a Steelhead and a cup of pabulum if he's a grilse.

When arriving back at the dock I lift the large LIVE fish from the tank in the boat to a Special LIVE-Picture box. This is an all-glass box. The fish stands on his head in this salt water filled studio.

The LIVE-Picture box with snout-down LIVE fish inside is now placed in front of the smiling captor who places one hand firmly on top of the box, both smile, the camera is clicked and you have a picture of a LIVE fish.

Now then Mr. Roberts, this is the type of picture your paper was to have published. A picture of a beautiful LIVE salmon with its beaming captor, but the story ended in tragedy. The reciprocating gimble sprocket in the LIVE-Picture box slipped a thread and broke the lead line with a consequent release of Moolo-Mucket gas into the salt water. This caused constriction of the gill capillaries and brought about death by suffocation. Thus your photographers had to snap a DEAD fish.

Yours very truly,

J. H. G. (Brentwood Fishing Guide).

Come out from behind those initials, Jimmy Gilbert. We know you.

Speaker Urges Clean-Up in Realtors

Victoria real estate firms were urged today to exercise more careful selection in hiring salesmen and to get rid of anybody not willing to live up to the highest standard of business ethics.

The advice was given by Philip A. Seagrove of Hamilton, Ont., at a noon meeting of the Victoria Real Estate Board at Loughheed's Banquet Club.

Mr. Seagrove, one of the founders of the multiple listing service in Hamilton, said the time had come for a new approach to the business all across Canada.

BETTER SERVICE

"The public look to us for advice and service," he told the meeting. "The time has come for us to realize we must give better service."

He felt the multiple listing plan, such as that recently introduced in Victoria, could provide the key to better service.

"There are good men in the business who, if willing to co-operate, can do the job the public wants."

"The dog eat dog policy adopted in some areas can only lead to disaster," he said. "We must stop fighting among ourselves."

Mr. Seagrove said he was not against new people entering the real estate business, but expressed concern that in the past "green salesmen have been out without sufficient knowledge of the business to do a proper job."

(The B.C. Association of Real Estate Boards is already working on a program to put the real estate business on a more professional basis and has engaged Vancouver lawyer T. G. Norris to bring in recommendations for a new and more stringent Real Estate Licensing Act.)

EXPERTS SAY

Still Time To Check Caterpillars

There is still time to check the caterpillar plague from causing widespread damage to gardens, federal entomologists said today.

If every household would spend an hour in his garden in the next two days destroying the pests, the plague could be brought under control, it was claimed.

"But action should be taken immediately," the entomologist stated.

A solution of DDT was recommended as a means of "knocking out" the chewing insects. Burning is suggested as well.

EGGS HATCHED

Entomologists said it is too late to destroy the eggs of caterpillars. These have hatched and the insects are now starting to migrate. The pests are expected to increase with warmer weather.

This is a peak year for the caterpillars which usually multiply to plague proportions every seven years. The pests cause widespread damage to fruit trees, garden crops and ornamental trees.

Swarms of the insects have already begun to make their appearance in certain districts of Greater Victoria.

City park officials reported the caterpillars are quite numerous in the Burnside Road area.

In Oak Bay, the engineer's department had to spray to check the insects in the vicinity of the War Memorial in the Uplands.

The two municipalities this year set aside small funds to check the pests. Saanich made no provisions to control the caterpillars.

The plague is viewed seriously by many householders who remember the widespread damage the caterpillars caused to fruit trees and shrubs eight years ago in Victoria. The pests damaged hundreds of rose bushes, as well as many cherry and apple trees.

The present plague could be just as serious, unless the caterpillars are checked at once.

Alderman Asks Charity Grants Go to Chest

Favors Special Solarium Aid

City alderman Robert Macmillan said today he will ask council to turn over the bulk of the civic charity grant funds this year to Community Chest for distribution to member agencies.

This would cut off Greater Victoria Arts Council and Victoria Symphony Orchestra.

Ald. Macmillan feels that grants to those groups should be made by the provincial government on the same basis as grants for education.

He told the Times that any charitable organization wishing a grant should join Community Chest.

Last year the city turned over $8,000 to the chest for distribution as the chest directors saw fit.

Noted Eagles To Address Parley in City

Four prominent leaders of the Fraternity of Eagles will address the convention of British Columbia Provincial Aerie when it is held here June 10-12.

Representing the Grand Aerie will be James Pugh, Muskogee, Okla., of the board of grand trustees; Joseph Starosky, Bremerton, Wash., grand inside guard; Warren Jones, Salem, Ore., P.S.P. of Oregon; and Edward Stanley, Aberdeen, Wash., junior past state president of Washington State Aerie.

Harry Smith Honored By Principals

Retiring principal Harry Smith of Victoria High School was honored at a dinner of the Principals' Association of Greater Victoria Schools at the Pacific Club Wednesday night.

Mr. Smith has served 41 years at Victoria High and leaves his post this month. He will be succeeded by Harry D. Dee, who at present is vice-principal.

Walter J. Kitley chaired the gathering of 52 principals and vice-principals in addition to several retired principals and guests.

On behalf of the group, Walter Brynjolfsson presented Mr. Smith with a set of luggage.

He described Mr. Smith's outstanding contribution to the education of the youth of Victoria.

A "homecoming" to be attended by former students and friends, some of them coming from distant points, will also honor Mr. Smith at the high school on June 23.

Fined for Forgery

A naval rating, who forged his wife's signature on a $60 government cheque and cashed it January 31, was fined $50 or one month in jail when he appeared in the city police court today on a forgery charge.

Thomas D. McWhinnie forged the name of his wife, Margaret D. McWhinnie, on the cheque and cashed it at Junction Pharmacy, police said.

Floor Repairs To Go Ahead At Arena

Delayed reconstruction work on Memorial Arena floor today was given the go-ahead by city council finance committee.

Work is expected to start as soon as a specialist firm in Vancouver can free a crew for the job.

Cement is to be forced under the present floor which has been subject to some sagging in recent years and resultant leaking of cooling agent pipes.

The work was approved by the arena commission and the city engineer's department earlier but Ald. Brent Murdoch had asked a delay until a Vancouver firm of consulting engineers gave an opinion in writing.

A letter from the firm supporting the recommendations of the city engineer was filed this morning.

Ald. W. F. Pinfold, finance chairman, said the $20,000 repair job can now get underway. Arrangements will be made so that the job does not interfere with city lacrosse schedules.

Liquor Licences To Bring $2,700

Victoria Outlets Face $200 Annual Fees Under New Plan

City finance committee this morning set license fees for city liquor outlets in line with recent recommendations by the city solicitor and the license inspector, which would bring $2,700 a year to the city treasury.

To be approved by council, the fees would be $100 every six months for beer parlors and cocktail lounges with an additional charge of $7.50 each six months for each employee over the number of five.

Thomas Doubts Weather in June Will Permit Strait Swim Tries

Doubt that either he or rival swimmer Pat Russell would get into Juan de Fuca Strait before July was expressed by strait swim hopeful Bert Thomas today after his return from hometown Tacoma where he has obtained financial backing.

"Everything is ready," Thomas declared, referring to his team, boats and reasonably favorable tides.

"I could be away in 15 minutes if I had to. But with this holding wind it doesn't look like either one of us is going to get in the water this month."

Strait Speaking

(Patricia Russell, the 18-year-old UBC strait challenger who aims at being a journalist, continues her daily column about her training at Cadboro Bay.)

By PAT RUSSELL

The first word of greeting used by everyone who meets me these days is not "How" but "When?"

It leaves me speechless.

There just isn't any answer to the question. The weatherman holds all the answers, and until he pulls out a southeast wind and drives off the ever-present westerly, here we stay.

My fingers are beginning to burn. I have an American fifty-cent piece that I intend to spend as soon as I reach Port Angeles, and I'm afraid prices will go up before I get there.

However, the waiting isn't half as hard on me as it is on Miss Doreen Blankenship. She hopes to marry Mr. Glenn Kirschner, assistant coach, on June 4.

So we had a going-away party last night. Of course Glenn will return the minute his wedding is over, and he and his bride should have a unique honeymoon for five or six weeks the boat crew.

It is becoming more and more likely that Mr. Bert Thomas will be swimming on the same tide as myself: I doubt that there will be two breaks in the weather.

Hoyle might not approve, but might I conclude today's column with a "Competitor's Wish" for my opponent? And since I can think of none so appropriate as Mr. Thomas' own remark over a local radio station yesterday, I quote: "May the best man—or woman—win!"

AWAITS CALM

Vancouver's 18-year-old Pat Russell, who has been training at Cadboro Bay for the last three weeks, is scheduled to take off for Port Angeles before June 12, and is presently awaiting calmer weather.

Under tutelage of coach Freddie McDermott, Pat is keeping in shape with brief, hour-long training dips so as to keep in reserve for a momentary take-off.

Her navigator, Capt. Gordon Littler, will give her a minimum five hours' notice prior to departure.

Coach McDermott said this morning if the weather does not break within the next week, the swim would likely be postponed to August or later.

Weatherman Bill Mackie forecasts continued westerlies in the strait for 24-48 hours, thus eliminating Friday as a possible date for a crossing.

Victoria Girls' Drill Team likely will march as a rear escort to a car bearing former president Harry Truman during Portland Rose Festival parade June 11.

Capt. Norman Foster, organizer of the famed group, said today arrangements for the trip to Portland are almost complete. He had just received word of Mr. Truman's expected place in the parade.

The former president will address a banquet in Portland that night.

Sixty-one members of the drill team will make the trip in a 16-car caravan. They will be hosted in the city between June 8 to 12. It is the 10th appearance of the Victoria girls at the festival.

A request to the city to send Victoria Mayor Queen Doreen Wells to the festival was declined by city finance committee this morning.

ASK The TIMES

Q.—Where is the Mendenhall Glacier? A.E.D.

A.—It is in Alaska, a few miles from Juneau, the capital, and can be seen from the Glacier Highway. It is in unspoiled wilderness, and is a constantly retreating river of ice. Magnificent mountain scenery is viewed from the highway by motorists.

Q.—Can you inform me if there is an office in Victoria of the Better Business Bureau, as there is in Toronto, where one may inquire about business practices? J.J.S.

Renew Feminine Fixings
For Sultry Summer Days

By PENNY SAVER

During the warmer months, perfume distillers have a hey-day. Nearly every woman feels the need of a light and refreshing perfume and cologne made especially for summer weather, with the invigorating days and cooler refreshing evenings. The perfumes I've been sampling and testing, are made to give a woman that special feeling, I'm told. For centuries women have been trying different types of perfume, and each one was chosen for its quality of bringing out the femininity of the wearer.

Well, these bewitching scents I tried myself, and was amazed at the staying-on power. Try it yourself in your favorite shade. The bottles, and the intriguing names, combine with the heavenly odors to become some of the most popular perfumes and colognes on the market. One of the favorites is called "Shalimar."

It is in a pedestal bottle of clear fluted glass with the smoky-blue fan shaped stopper. Per dram, it's $1, and the matching cologne is $3 and $5 for one or two-ounce bottles.

The matching colognes for most of the perfumes come in distinctive flat disc bottles to enhance the appearance of your dressing table as well as add allure to your personality.

Other perfumes by this famous maker are "L'Heure Bleue," at 75 cents a dram; "Mit-souko," at $1, and "Vol de Nuit," at $1.25—a dram.

"L'Heure Bleue," as the advertisements say, "whispers of twilight and the gentle quiet of the day's end." "Mit-souko" is a gay young fragrance, while "Vol de Nuit" is rich and well-rounded and fresh as summer itself.

While on the subject of frippery and cosmetics, I thought I'd tell you that the new lipstick you've been reading and hearing so much about is now on sale in town at $1.50 a tube. It comes in vibrant shades that are the same color on your lips as in the tube. It lasts 24 hours.

Prison Reform Initiated by Woman But Post-Prison Help Great Need

It was a woman who took the first step toward humanizing our penal system, Miss Anne Sutherland pointed out in addressing the Women's Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel Wednesday.

Because Miss Agnes McPhail as a member of parliament could and did, force her way into the penitentiary in the early 1930s, a royal commission was formed to probe into conditions in Canada's eight penitentiaries.

Miss Sutherland, a well-known Vancouver lawyer, drew an the Archambault Report to describe iniquitous treatment handed out to prisoners before certain reforms were made following the Second World War.

"Today it is costing the public more than $9,000,000 to keep approximately 5,120 men in the eight penitentiaries," Miss Sutherland told her audience.

Too many of these—almost half—were repeaters, she commented, later pointing out that difficulties facing prisoners upon release could be related to this fact.

It is her opinion that Germans in war-time prisons did not treat Canadians any more brutally than we treated our own in Canadian prisons. And yet, she commented, it has been proved that harshness is no deterrent to crime.

Prisons had, and still have, too many rules, she told her audience. It is impossible to remember 741 rules and any one might be broken without the prisoner realizing it.

She described a prisoner's routine at some length, both before reform and at the present time, saying that uncensored magazines, newspapers and books were now allowed, also pursuit of hobbies, sports and games.

But it is the period following discharge that is most in need of attention now, she emphasized. With his $10 in hand what does the ex-prisoner find in the world beyond the gates?

Aside from the fact that this money is quickly gone and that he faces hunger and loneliness, he finds that the clanging prison gate has shut many other gates in front of him. He cannot get a visa to enter the United States, and if he states the truth on a job application, he very often cannot get a job either.

"There are too many busy bodies," Miss Sutherland exclaimed. "Too many people who think it is their duty to tell his employees if a man has a prison record."

There would be far fewer repeaters, Miss Sutherland felt if a proper program of rehabilitation were launched to help the discharged prisoners over the first difficult months of freedom.

Mrs. Gordon Wismer thanked the speaker "on behalf of the Canadian Club."

Annual meeting of the club preceded the main address. Mrs. Wismer was re-elected president and other officers are: Mrs. R. D. Harvey, first vice-president; Mrs. R. G. McKee, second; Miss Jessie Gordon, secretary; Mrs. R. T. Wallace, treasurer; Mrs. A. G. Slocomb, assistant treasurer; Miss Freda Small, historian. Mrs. E. S. Farr is past president.

The executive also includes the following committee: Mrs. F. M. Corbett, Mrs. L. W. Topham, Mrs. D. M. Cox, Mrs. E. R. Penny, Mrs. Walter A. MacDonald, Mrs. Alex A. Young and Mrs. W. Trenholme.

Sylvia Lee, Henry Fong Married in First United

Shades of blue were seen in the gowns of attendants of lovely bride, Miss Sylvia Lee, at the wedding ceremony in First United Church recently, when she became the bride of Henry Patrick Fong, Rev. A. J. Waters officiated for the daughter of Mr. Heme Lee Woo, 2020 Blanshard Street, and the son of Mrs. Fong Yong, 1618 Government Street. White iris, stocks and gladioli formed the floral background for the attractive wedding party.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a delicately fashioned gown of White Chantilly lace with a ballerina-length skirt in four frothy tiers. The fitted bodice had a strapless effect, with folded lace just below the shoulders. She wore long matching lace gloves, and waist length veil in nylon illusion trimmed with deep lace of the same pattern. Her head-dress was a flat creation of net, dotted with seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom and carried a bridal bouquet of white freesia centred with a white orchid.

The bride's attendants were gowned in nylon tulle dresses with full gathered skirts topped with pleated fitted bodices with folded shoulder-tip bands, and a deep V in the back. Their headbands were of matching pleated net with a cluster of freesia on the side.

Matron of honor was Mrs. E. Fong, in a royal blue, and bridesmaids were Miss Lona Hoy, Vancouver, in periwinkle blue and Miss Ruby Chan in powder blue. All wore single strands of pearls and carried bouquets of different shades of pink carnations with lily of the valley.

Best man was Henry Lee, and ushers, Henry Mark and Roy Fong, the groom's brother. David Mar was soloist, singing "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Roberto Wood.

A reception followed at the Chez Marcel, where a two-tier square wedding cake decorated in white with pink rosettes was placed in a mist of pink tulle in the centre of the bride's table. Pink candles in silver holders flanked the cake, and apple blossoms and tulips were used in the floral arrangements.

The young couple left on a honeymoon trip to Yellow Point Lodge, from where they will travel to Seattle and Portland.

Only Moths Can Tell About New Fur Fabric

By PAULINE KENNEDY

Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — France has come up with a fabric Persian lamb for women's coats and boasts "only a moth can tell the difference."

The fabric, made by secret process from artificial silk, is being displayed in coat form at the Canadian International Trade Fair here this year. It is guaranteed moth proof, snow proof and rain proof.

The designers added a touch of real Persian lamb to collar or cuff — a challenge to distinguish the difference.

The fabric, in grey, black and brown, has the exact tight curl and twist of real fur. The only difference is in weight, touch and price.

NOT SO SLIKY OR SOFT

Synthetic coats run 1½ pounds lighter than Persian lamb for full length models and are not quite as silky and soft to the touch as the real thing.

Biggest advantage is low price, from $175 to $195, three-quarter lengths for $165, shorties $109 to $135, depending on styling, and capes and stoles run $79 to $89.

The French manufacturers have been selling the coats through 12 stores in Quebec and one Winnipeg for the last 4½ years. They hope the trade fair exhibit will stimulate business throughout Canada.

The fabric, called "fabrilam," is made in France, and shipped to 17 countries to be made up in suitable styles.

In Canada coats are designed in Montreal. Most models are modifications of current French styles.

Box shorties and wrap-around jackets are most chic and some have Persian lamb or real mink collars. Others have smart braid fret-work designs. Smartest touches are gay colorful silk linings, some in red, brilliant blues or floral silk prints.

R. C. Gelsey, representing Modyl, the outlet for fabric furs in Canada, said two of France's largest markets are Italy and Spain.

"They like fabric jackets for hot-weather wear because of its light weight," he said. "Some of our material has even gone to Japan and India."

Mr. Gelsey said fabric fur is not intended to interfere with the market for genuine fur in Canada. "We are hitting the new low-price field for those who couldn't afford a real fur, or those who want a second fur coat for casual knock-about wear."

Skimps on Food To Buy Clothes

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK, Ph.D.

A spendthrift shopper can play havoc with a family budget. (Q)—"In a recent column, you wrote about a wife who was annoyed because her husband bought too much and too expensive food when he went shopping for the family. I would like to present the other side of the picture. My wife does all the marketing. She has always insisted that this is the woman's job. Even when I want to go to help her home with the bundles, she still objects."

"She gets such small amounts of food and often such poor cuts of meat that they are hardly fit to eat. As for vegetables, we live on carrots, beets, turnips, and spinach. Never peas, asparagus, tomatoes or corn even in season. It is the same with fruits—never fresh oranges or other tasty fruits, just bananas, apples, and grapes. Why does she pinch like this? Because she wants to keep some of the food money for clothes for herself. No matter what I say, I haven't been able to make her see how selfish and unfair to me this is. What would you suggest that I do?"

(A)—If you can make no headway using reason, why not try eating some of your meals away from home and deduct the amount from her food budget?

When you come to the dinner table and find tough meat, the same old vegetables and the same fruits you have had for months, get up and leave. Inform her that you are going out for your dinner, and then do so.

After you have deducted what the meal cost from the next week's food budget, it may impress her more than all the words you could use. Several experiences of this sort should be enough to make her come to her senses and realize that she cannot cheat on the family food for her clothes.

Federated Women's Institutes Are Honored By Association for Adult Education Award

The Canadian Association for Adult Education has announced that the Henry Marshall Tory Award, presented annually by them, has been given this year to the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada and to Radio College. This award, named after Dr. H. M. Tory, first president of Carleton College, is "for an outstanding contribution to Canadian adult education."

The citation for the Women's Institutes reads: "The Women's Institutes have a history of outstanding work for more than 50 years. Their accomplishments were recognized long ago in the most notable way: they were copied abroad by farm women in Britain and many other countries."

"The education program of the Institutes has never degenerated into busy-work or passing pious resolutions. Even after half a century the Institutes show, if anything, more vigor than ever before. The program has had a character that has attracted women in every part of Canada, both on farms and in towns, thus effectively bringing farm women in touch with their town neighbors. In hundreds of communities there are community halls, Canadian painting chosen by or some essential welfare service that came about because of the devoted work of the local Institute. Information about public affairs and an interest in the arts have been brought to thousands of homes. Recently the Institutes have given a lead to other Canadian organizations by sharing with women in other lands through their generous support of the UNESCO Gift Coupon Plan.

UNIQUE CONTRIBUTION

"The Federated Women's Institutes of Canada are to be commended for a unique contribution to the lives of thousands of Canadians, for the improvement of community life, and for service abroad."

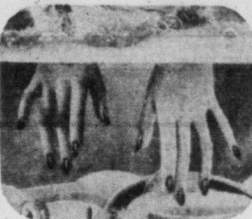

A token presentation was made at the annual meeting of CAAE in May by Waldo Walsh, deputy minister of agriculture in Nova Scotia and vice-president of CAAE, to Mrs. H. Eliard, second vice-president of Quebec Women's Institutes and QWIC representative on the FWIC board.

The actual award, which is a

Esquimalt district Liberals, June 24, may become the first political group in B.C. to name a candidate for the next provincial election.

EARLY B.C. MISSIONARY

Presbyterians Elect McCree Moderator

TORONTO (CP)—Dr. Walter T. McCree, 75, of Toronto, Wednesday was elected moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The choice was made at opening session of the 81st general assembly.

Dr. McCree, a pioneer Presbyterian minister in Canada, retired a year ago, after 22 years as minister at Glebe Presbyterian Church in Toronto.

He succeeds retiring moderator Rev. J. L. W. McLean of Victoria.

The new moderator was elected by the church's 225 commissioners and held a slim majority over the only nominee, Dr. J. Logan Veneta of St. Giles Church, Ottawa. The vote was 94 to 88.

Dr. McCree was recruited in 1907 from his father's store in Newcastle, England, to open missions in the Canadian West. He organized a mission in the Kootenay lake district of British Columbia and in 1914 founded a congregation at Prince George, B.C. He also served as a student minister in Vancouver and on missions in northern British Columbia.

Dr. McLean of Victoria, retiring moderator, told church leaders here Wednesday night to do more leading and less exploring.

Dr. McCree said the Presbyterian Church possesses wealth in numbers today but lacks the vitality and daring which characterized the apostolic church.

Just returned from a tour of mission fields in Formosa. Mr. McLean said he found a disturbing contrast between Canada and that country.

"I found a truly alive church in Formosa, full of enthusiasm and activity," he said. "When I returned to Canada, our church seemed half asleep."

Adoption of Guaranteed Wage Could End Jobless Benefits

OTTAWA (BUP)—Canadian labor unions currently asking for guaranteed annual wages could disqualify their members from unemployment insurance benefits if they win their objective, it was disclosed today.

Officials of the Unemployment Insurance Commission said a provision disqualifying persons getting a guaranteed annual wage from benefits has been in the act since 1952. The provision was adopted following a referee's ruling that a person still receiving money from an employer or former employer could not be classified as "unemployed," even though he was not working.

Although the department of labor has adopted a wait and see attitude toward current labor demands for the GAW, the idea is not new to Canadian labor.

STREAMLINE COMMONS WORK

Shorter Debates Will Be Proposed

BY VICTOR MACKIE
Times Ottawa Correspondent

OTTAWA—Report of the committee of the Commons which has been striving to work out more efficient and streamlined rules of procedure for parliament, will be made to the Commons next week. It is understood the all-party committee's report will be unanimous.

Indications are there will be five major recommendations to go before the house:

(1) A reduction in the length of time for the debate on the speech from the throne to 10 days and the budget debate to eight days not including budget day.

There will be provision for morning sittings on the throne speech debate and the limitation of the budget debate does not, apply to discussions in committee.

(2) The time limit on the length of members' speeches is expected to be left at 40 minutes in regular debates. But a restriction to 30 minutes will be imposed for speeches in committee.

(3) A change in night sittings is recommended. It would abolish the evening sitting on Friday. Instead the house would meet at 11 a.m. on that day and sit until 6 p.m. with an hour and a half adjournment for lunch at 1 p.m.

(4) A restriction to six on the number of motions that may be made in any one session by members seeking to air grievances. There would also be provision at the session's end for extra grievance motions, but they would be limited.

(5) Answers to members' questions appearing on the order paper will be filed with the clerk of the house for automatic inclusion in Hansard. At present at the opening of the house Mr. Speaker has to read off the long text of questions and members of the government must signify whether or not they are to be answered that day. This time wasting practice would be abolished.

Authors' Group Reviews First Amateur Movie

An amateur movie filmed in Port Arthur 26 years ago with leading roles taken by Dorothea Mitchell and W. Gibson of Victoria, was reviewed at a joint meeting of Canadian Authors' Association branch and Victoria Movie Club in Christ Church Cathedral Memorial Hall this week.

The film, "A Race for Ties," bears the reputation of being the first feature-length movie written, produced, filmed and acted by amateur talent.

Mr. Gibson was president of the Port Arthur Amateur Cinema Society when the film was made in 1909.

Miss Mitchell wrote the scenario and Edward Lee provided background music.

An account of the film's production was given by Mr. Gibson following the showing.

Drinking Drivers Pay $500 in Fines

Two drivers were each fined $250 or 15 days in jail when they pleaded guilty in city police court Wednesday to charges of driving while their ability was impaired by alcohol early this morning.

They were William Robert Brown, 53 Lewis, and Francis L. Creighton.

Police said Creighton was driving in an erratic manner in the Johnson-Blanshard area at about 3:05 a.m.

Brown was apprehended on Douglas between Port and Cormorant.

Magistrate Henry C. Hall suspended both driver's licenses.

Forest Products Officials Set for Safety Parley Here

Between 200 and 300 delegates from B.C. and western United States are expected to attend the 21st annual Forest Products Safety Conference opening Thursday at the Empress Hotel.

Included will be safety directors and safety-minded executives of major logging and lumber firms of the northwest.

Rev. William Hills will be keynote speaker, and the invocation will be delivered by Archbishop Harold Sexton.

Handicapped Making Plans To Construct Own Factory

A number of local firms have promised the new factory piece work contracts.

About 300 district handicapped workers would be employed. Work would include leather creations, sewing, upholstery and other handicrafts. League members would be able to purchase shares.

He said the reason the building at Pandora and Government was dropped was the high costs of renovation. The building has to be suitable for wheel chair traffic and all facilities should be on one floor at ground level.

"We think we can build one and suit it to our purposes," Mr. Blakeney stated.

The Handicapped League was formed just a year ago and observes its first birthday with a party in James Bay Community Hall Friday. Jubilee Hospital social services director, Adrien Gilmore, will attend to install new officers.

League of the Handicapped has abandoned plans for purchase and remodeling of a former War Surplus Centre building at Pandora and Government, spokesman Fred Blakeney said today.

He added that although six other buildings have been offered as a factory site for the handicapped group, the league hopes to be able to build one of its own.

It had been proposed that the league purchase the building for $25,000 and spend another $50,000 remodeling it.

The league, which has 80 members, is in the process of forming a stock company.

"We have assurance that once we have proven we are in earnest, finances will be forthcoming," He added that

Los Angeles Voters Reject New Park

LOS ANGELES (CP)—Despite prolonged clamor for big league baseball in Los Angeles, voters have rejected a proposed $1,500,000 bond issue for a new park.

Opponents argued that a major league franchise would be operated by private interests and the public should not be asked to carry the financial burden of building the park.

brand—standing for Good Entertainment.

The plot concerns Kirk Douglas, a man without a guiding star, a man continually on the prod for greater and wider ranges, free from the growing entanglements of barbed wire fences.

It looks, finally, as though he has found what he wants on the Triangle spread, good grub, good men, a fenceless range and a young protegee (William Campbell) who reminds him much of his young brother killed in a Texas range war over a barbed wire fence.

UNFORTUNATELY FOR Douglas things are too good to last. The new owner of the ranch, Jeanne Crain, proves to be an unscrupulous woman. She brings in more cattle than the range can supply with grass. Immediately her peace-loving neighbors, in their own defense, commence erecting fences to ensure enough winter feed for their herds and the range war is on.

Douglas is believable as the man on the prod but it is newcomer Graham, as the gauche, eager-to-learn greenhorn that supplies the film with life. Under Douglas' tutelage he learns how to draw fast, shoot straight, brand cattle, handle his lariat and round up the herd. Claire Trevor is good as the dance hall gal while Richard Boone does well as the gun-totin' tough.

INDEED, IN MANY ways, this picture might have amounted to something special if certain roles had been played down, notably that of Miss Crain's. Also, there was something too cut and dried about the plot. For instance, one knew that Douglas could out-fight and out-shoot any man in the world. This, of course, is not good. Theatre patrons like to see their heroes like Shane or Gary Cooper's sheriff in "High Noon" be more human, more vulnerable and less infallible. After awhile even Superman becomes dull.

The housefly is found wherever man has established himself, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

New Attempt Set to Prove Shakespeare Just 'Front'

LONDON (Reuters)—An American drama historian who thinks Shakespeare was just a front for another author expects to prove his claim next month by opening a 300-year-old tomb.

Calvin Hoffman of New York has obtained permission from church officials to open the ancient tomb of Sir Thomas Walsingham, famous Elizabethan nobleman, at Chislehurst, England. Inside, he expects to find a lead box containing the 36 manuscripts of the first folio of Shakespeare's plays. These manuscripts, he thinks, will show that Christopher Marlowe, another famous Elizabethan era playwright, was the real author of the plays now ascribed to Shakespeare.

Top Civic Leaders Explore Ferry Situation Possibilities

The trip by Mr. Crombie and Mr. Warren followed an emergency meeting called by Mayor Claude Harrison Wednesday afternoon to explore the whole ferry situation resulting from withdrawal of the Chinook and Olympia.

The meeting was attended by members of city council, Reeve Joseph Casey, of Saanich; Cllr. Fred Hawes of Oak Bay, the three Victoria M.P.s, public works minister W. N. Chant, Mrs. Lydia Arsens and George Gregory and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce.

TERMS OF UNION

The mayor made clear his purpose in calling the meeting was to add support to his own efforts to have Victoria demand additional boat service under "Terms of Union, 1871."

He cited section 4, pertaining to Victoria's right to fortnightly steam connection between here and San Francisco, and twice weekly service between here and Olympia.

The mayor told the meeting he had discussed Terms of Union with Prime Minister St. Laurent while in the east and that the prime minister had agreed articles of the agreement were just as binding today as when it was signed.

Said the mayor: "I'm not the least bit surprised at what has happened (with regard to the loss to Victoria of the Chinook).

"These companies (CPR and Black Ball) are in business to get money and they'll go to the route that brings them the most. Under Terms of Union you'll get the ships you are entitled to and you will keep profit-seeking out of it."

TWO SHIPS

"What we want is a dominion ship—or two ships—that will carry out the bargain. We must lay down the principle and say we want it carried out. It never has been and it's still good."

The mayor said once the federal government admitted its responsibility in this connection, then the provincial government could negotiate to amend the terms to have the boats run between Port Angeles and Seattle, instead of Olympia and San Francisco.

PRESS OTTAWA

Ald. Geoffrey Edgelow and Ald. Brent Murdoch framed a resolution, which was accepted, asking the provincial government to look into the matter of Terms of Union and press the federal government for action.

Only dissenter was Mr. Crombie. Proposals at the meeting ran from offering the Black Ball line a $1 per car subsidy to bring the Chinook back to Victoria to picketing the Black Ball terminals at Horseshoe Bay and Nanaimo.

CNR BID

The mayor and Mr. Crombie probed the matter of asking the CNR to begin a Victoria-Port Angeles service.

Ald. Austin Curtis, CNR general agent in Victoria, answered questions, but made clear he could not speak officially.

"Could the CNR adapt the Canora in time?" the mayor queried.

(The Canora is a CNR ship used for carrying rail cars between here, James Island and Port Mann. It was built in 1918.)

"To the best of my knowledge she's busy now handling freight," Mr. Curtis replied. "In any event it was never intended to carry automobiles."

It is equipped with rails," James Genge, of the Chamber of Commerce, saw "no practical hope that the vessel could be converted for service this summer in any event."

Questioned the availability of the Ss. Prince Rupert, Ald. Curtis said:

"She's up for sale, and I question whether she could be converted to carry many cars. She certainly couldn't carry trucks."

STATISTICAL SIDE

George Warren provided the meeting with statistics showing how many cars and passengers passed in and out of Victoria either going or coming from Seattle or Port Angeles during the summer months.

"July and August are the problem months," Mr. Warren observed. "Last year, there were 14,851 cars passed through this port in July and 17,380 cars in August."

Mr. Genge estimated that because of the Chinook's removal from the Juan de Fuca Strait run, if the same number of vehicles showed up this year, 5,000 cars would be stranded in July and another 6,000 in August.

Mr. Gregory urged these figures be presented to both the CPR and Black Ball. He said the two companies should realize that tourists did not want to go and come by the same route and that by cutting off facilities at the lower island end, they were automatically reducing traffic at Nanaimo.

"We've got to give these companies an argument to show them where they are going to gain," Mr. Gregory said. "We can't expect anything if we go to them crying about what we're going to lose."

Restaurant operator Elmer McEwen, who attended the meeting on his own behalf, suggested that "since its profit they're after, why can't business and government get together and offer a $1-a-car subsidy to get the Chinook back."

Mr. Genge, of the chamber, said he had persistently opposed the idea of having to subsidize ferry services but had come "pretty close to the edge of believing that's the answer."

It was Mr. McEwen who suggested as well that pickets be placed at Black Ball terminals as a form of protest.

Ald. Geoffrey Edgelow offered a somewhat similar suggestion: that Victoria business men agree to ship freight only by that line which was prepared to come to Victoria's aid, and to boycott the other.

BLACK BALL
"It might mean black balling the Black Ball," he said.

Mr. Crombie thought this would be a violation of the Criminal Code's "restraint of trade" section.

Ald. Edgelow proposed representation be made to Gavin Mount of the Gulf Islands Ferry Company, Salt Spring Island, to see if he could be persuaded to put his recently-acquired Motor Princess into service between Sidney and Steveston.

Mr. Curtis said this was not likely, explaining: "The reason the CPR took her off was because of the expense of converting her to comply with steamship regulations."

Ald. Edgelow suggested that if the government was made aware "that this is an emergency" it might be willing to waive the regulations temporarily.

"We don't want just any old ship," Ald. Murdoch said. The meeting adjourned to meet again Friday at 3, at which time Mr. Crombie and Mr. Warren will report on their mainland talks.

SLOAN FORESTRY PROBE

Canadian Pulp and Paper Association.

Mr. Owen charged that "there appears to be a deliberate campaign by some persons to arouse public prejudice against the larger companies in the forest industry."

He did not mention the "some persons." Earlier, while issuing a prepared press release, Mr. Owen was asked whether he referred specifically to Mr. Gibson or the individual newspapers. He refused to pin down his charge.

Mr. Owen said "some wild and irresponsible statements have been made. They raise a challenge I know these associations will meet when they appear before the Royal Commission on forestry, as they have planned to do since this commission was first announced."

"What I and my clients deeply resent," he said, "is the attempt being made to paint them as wrong-doers who are to be 'summoned' before the Royal Commission."

"This is an insidious, underhanded attempt to blacken the name and reputation of honorable men before they have a chance to speak on their behalf," Mr. Owen said.

Mr. Gibson was prevented from completing reading of his statement in its entirety by the intervention of Mr. Locke. He said Mr. Craig was quoted in the Vancouver Sun, of May 27, as branding his testimony before the commission as "untruthful."

"If that is so, I am guilty of perjury," said Mr. Gibson. "I want this man brought before this commission."

Mr. Locke said he would consult with Mr. Gibson during the 1 o'clock recess, with a view to determining whether a subpoena should be issued. This action would have to be approved by Chief Justice Gordon Sloan.

Mr. Gibson also took objection to Mr. Owen's reference to "irresponsible statements." "If that is directed at me, I want that cleared up too," Mr. Gibson said.

Mr. Owen said the "statements I refer to are those which led one newspaper (The Times) to report: 'Chief Justice Gordon Sloan served blunt warning Monday that he expects the top men of B.C.'s timber industry to take the witness box on the forestry royal commission'."

Mr. Owen said "the commissioner has already made one statement which ought to have cleared up any possible misunderstanding on this point."

"The plain fact is that the pulp and paper industry has spent more than three months preparing a brief to present to the Royal Commission."

"And officials of the industry will be available for cross-examination on any details that are not clear," Mr. Owen continued.

"Others have since done so, but as matters turned out, they may not have the chance of appearing before the summer recess, probably not until September."

Mr. Owen was asked by newsmen whether H. R. MacMillan, one of the giants of the industry, would appear in the witness box. He replied that Mr. MacMillan "may be in Europe."

Mr. Locke, commission counsel, told the Times Tuesday that only two firms holding forest management licenses, Bendickson Logging and Powell River Co., had made plans to appear before the commission.

Mr. Owen said "to create the impression that they (the large F.M.L. holders) have been 'served blunt warning' or any other kind of warning is a vicious attempt to discredit and defame."

He said it is "a violation of even the most basic conceptions of fair dealings and fair play."

The counsel said "everything that has happened" did not accurately portray what took place" before the commission.

Chief Justice Sloan made no comment on his remarks.

STREETS, SIDEWALKS

Local Improvement Petitions Snowball

Victoria residents may set a new civic record for local improvement plans this year with new streets, sidewalks, curbs and gutters being installed all over the city.

Where there were 35 applications for local improvement in 1954, there has been almost that many in the first five months of this year.

Public works officials point out that where two-thirds of the property owners on any street petition for sidewalks, and/or curb and gutter, the city will do the work at cost.

That cost is charged to all the homes whose frontage is affected by the improvements and spread over a 15-year repayment period. Payment is made with annual taxes.

FREE SOIL
Usual practice is that where curb and gutter is asked, the city also rehabilitates the road surface. When work of this nature is under way and boulevards are being installed, residents can obtain free loads of black soil from the city as it is available.

The parks department undertakes to plant decorative trees on the boulevards in neighborhoods where residents offer to care for them.

Officials also point out that one of the underlying reasons for growing participation in local improvement plans is the fact that property values tend to increase greatly as neighborhoods get a face-lifting.

Baseball Owner Dies
SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—R. W. Dick Burnett, colorful owner of the Dallas baseball club, died Wednesday of a heart attack. He was 57.

The wealthy Dallas oil man was stricken at his hotel while here to see his Eagles play Shreveport in a Texas League series.

FREED FLIERS

Yalu River, boundary between Korea and Manchuria.

Lieut. Lyle Cameron of Lincoln, Neb., said the trip to Peiping by Dag Hammarskjöld, secretary-general of the U.N., had much to do with their sudden release.

"Hammarskjöld's trip had very much to do with our release," Cameron said. "We will have the opportunity to meet Dag and it will be a big moment in our lives."

CANT SPEAK FREELY
Before the press conference opened at the Hickham air force base officers' club less than eight hours after the four arrived from Hong Kong, Maj. Gen. Cory Smith said the men were "not prepared to answer all questions."

The Pacific air force commander explained:

"There should be 15 men here, and for that reason they will not be able to answer all questions." He referred to 11 bomber crew members jailed as "spies" in Red China.

Lieut. Roland W. Parks, Omaha, fourth member of the group, said their treatment improved after the Geneva conference last year "and we were all allowed outside two hours a day for recreation."

Cameron said attempts to brain-wash them were similar to methods used on American prisoners of war in North Korea with which everyone is well acquainted.

Fischer said the attempts included study periods and lectures.

Asked whether he had been affected by brain-washing, Fischer replied:

"In my own case I don't feel I have changed any since I was shot down."

'PURE AND SIMPLE FASCISM'

Social Credit Must Be Stamped Into Ground Says Youthful Tory

BRANDON, Man. (BUP) — Harvey Galbraith, the national president of the Young Progressive Conservatives, said here Wednesday evening the Social Credit movement is pure and simple Fascism and must be stamped into the ground.

Galbraith, of Calgary, told a meeting of the Brandon YPC group that "The Socials are a threat to the basic freedoms of Canada in that they make no bones of their intention to control press, personal bank accounts and to prosecute minority racial and religious."

He described them as "an insidious political cancer." And the greatest menace the Conservative party has ever faced. It is far more important, he said, to fight the Socials, than to fight the Liberals or CCF.

"They are behaving just as Hitler did when he took over the Reichstag in Germany," the young Conservative maintained, "when anyone thinks he is infallible, it is time to watch out."

CROP CONDITIONS LOOK MORE PROMISING

OTTAWA (BUP)—Crop conditions on the prairies look "more promising" after a week's continued improvement, according to the Bureau of Statistics.

The bureau Wednesday issued its fourth telegraphic report on crop conditions; based on reports from agents throughout the area.

"Good progress has been made with wheat seeding, operations being practically completed in Manitoba, western Saskatchewan and in Alberta, except for the foothill sections," the report said.

Aubry Demands Investigation Of Packer-Consumer Fish Prices

A 2,000-pound catch of ling cod was dumped from the breaker recently after its owner learned he would never find a local market in future if he gave it away, Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council was told Wednesday.

Retail clerk's delegate John Aubry said the fisherman was offered two cents a pound for the fish from a Victoria packer, but turned it down because he would be unable to meet expenses at that price.

"The unionist said 'cod was bringing 38-47 cents a pound on the retail market at the time, and suggested to the meeting fish price boosts between packer and consumer should be investigated."

Mr. Aubry said it was "a crime food should have been wasted when we have senior citizens and others in Victoria who could have used it."

He said the fisherman learned "through the grapevine" he would never again sell fish locally if he gave his cod away to anyone who went down to the waterfront to pick up fish.

By Panama Canal the distance is about 50 miles, but it is 7,873 miles around South America.

Situation 'Impossible' B.C. Hospitals Claim

Rail-Stuck Royal Family Take to Air

Charles, Anne Fly First Time

(From UP and CP)

LONDON — Prince Charles, heir to the British throne, and his sister, Princess Anne, will fly for the first time in their lives next Sunday.

The decision to let the Royal children fly from Scotland to England resulted from Britain's paralyzing railway strike which caught the Royal Family at Balmoral Castle in Scotland. The trip between the castle and London normally is made by train.

Queen Elizabeth will fly in a separate plane from the one in which six-year-old Prince Charles and his four-year-old sister will make the trip.

It is a customary precaution not to group top members of British royalty in a single plane.

Buckingham Palace announced the decision, which will be accepted in Britain as an example of democratic action by the Queen. Other parents also are having to travel with their children by means other than trains during the strike.

CANCELS PARADE

Only two days ago the Queen cancelled her June 9 birthday parade because of the strike. She also chose to forego her traditional ride by state carriage from Buckingham Palace to Westminster for the state opening of Parliament on June 9. She said she would ride by car, to avoid complicating London's strike-snarled traffic.

The father of the royal children, the Duke of Edinburgh, is flying back from Scotland to London Friday, so the royal children will make their first trip by air unaccompanied by either their mother or father. They will be accompanied by Lt. Col. Martin Charteris, assistant private secretary to the Queen.

The Queen's plane will arrive at London airport at 5:30 p.m. (9:30 PDT) Sunday, 15 minutes before the children's plane arrives. She will meet them at the airport and drive with them to Buckingham Palace.

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Eden today held an emergency cabinet meeting as trade union leaders failed in an effort to end the strike, now in its fifth day.

A rail union leader declared there was "no immediate hope of any solution" to the work stoppage.

FREED U.S. FLIERS PLEADED GUILTY

Airmen Reveal Trial Details at Honolulu Press Conference; Reunited With Families

(From UP and AP)

HONOLULU—Four American airmen newly released from Chinese Communist prison camps rushed into the arms of their families today in an emotion-packed reunion that ended more than two years' separation.

The Korean war jet pilots said Wednesday they resisted "brain washing" during more than two years in Red China prisons but pleaded "guilty" to "intruding" into China and "provocative attack."

Asked if a confession was required at their trial, Capt. Harold E. Fisher, Iowa City, Iowa, replied:

"No, not at the trial."

Asked if they had to sign any confession before the trial, Fischer said after a pause: "I believe I'll wait until I see my lawyer before answering that question."

"That comment will stand for the rest of us," another airman added.

The four said there were attempts to brain-wash them but that all attempts were rebuffed.

Cartage Boost Asked

VANCOUVER (CP)—First rate increase for Vancouver cartage firms in more than three years will become effective July 1 if the Public Utilities Commission approves a request for a 10 per cent increase in rates by 30 Vancouver firms.

CANADIAN DEPORTEE JUST KICKED UPSTAIRS

BOSTON (UPI)—The health of the Canadian economy became an issue today in executive council debate on a pardon petition.

Arthur J. Ryan of Cambridge faced possible deportation to his native Canada in connection with a 1931 robbery conviction.

It's not so bad to go back to Canada," objected councilor Patrick J. McDonough. "The dollar's worth more up there than it is here. Let him go back and good luck to him."

The council voted to postpone action for a week on Ryan's petition.

Evans' Success On Giant Peak Hailed in City

Dr. Evans Known Here Through Participation in Hillary Lecture

Victoria had a special interest today in the news that Dr. Charles Evans has led a British expedition which has climbed Mount Kanchenjunga, in the Himalayas, the third highest peak in the world. (See story, Page 3.)

Dr. Evans was a member of Sir Edmund Hillary's party which described to Victorians at Memorial Arena in March last year how they made the ascent of Mount Everest.

Word of his newest climbing success was reported by telegram Wednesday from Darjeeling, India.

"WONDERFUL CLIMBER" Dr. Evans is a close personal friend of Dr. E. C. Hoodless, 2749 Musgrave Street.

"It's marvelous. I'm so delighted," Dr. Hoodless told the Times when he heard the news this morning. "Charlie is a wonderful climber."

During the two-day stay of the Hillary party in Victoria Dr. Evans made several friends though he usually tried to avoid the limelight and public receptions.

At the Memorial Arena lecture, sponsored by the Times he captured everyone's fancy by his dry humor.

An untold behind-the-scenes story about the lecture is that Dr. Evans had gone to dinner with Dr. Hoodless and when the time came for the lecture party to take the platform he was nowhere in sight. Led by Sir Edmund the lecture party was just about to take the platform with out him when he unobtrusively slipped into line at the last moment and joined them.

PAVED HILLARY'S WAY

The 35-year-old physician was given as much credit as Sir Edmund and Tenzing Norgay for the Everest achievement. He and T. D. Bourdillon climbed to within 300 feet of the summit the day before the final climb and undoubtedly paved the way for its success.

News that the Evans expedition has conquered 28,146-foot Kanchenjunga made man the master today of nature's three highest and most dangerous mountain peaks.

Kanchenjunga is regarded by alpinists as the climber's toughest challenge. Second only to Everest and Mt. Godwin-Austen (K2) in height it is one of the most massive mountains in the world and has been called the "most terrifying."

K2 was climbed by an Italian expedition last summer.

NANNIE DOSS GIVEN LIFE

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Grandma Nannie Doss today was sentenced to life imprisonment for poisoning her fifth husband, Judge Elmer Adams, who pronounced sentence, had the choice of giving the giggling, gum-chewing 49-year-old woman death in the electric chair or life. Mrs. Doss had admitted giving lethal doses of rat poisoning to four of her five husbands.

Heller declined to say whether the four had landed north of Tulsa.

Will Urge Cabinet To Cancel 'Freeze' Order on Costs

VANCOUVER (CP)—A B.C. Hospitals Association spokesman expressed the hope today that the provincial government will "change its mind" about its "freeze" order on hospital grants, which officials say will cause drastic cutbacks in service.

Percy Ward, executive secretary of BCHA, said a delegation from his organization will still seek more government financial aid despite Health Minister Martin's reaffirmed policy of holding the line on grants to the 1954 level.

The hospital authorities warned in a public statement Wednesday that wage boosts already negotiated this year will force staff layoffs and service cutbacks unless the government is willing to either increase direct grants or raise the $1 co-insurance.

"We think the premier and his cabinet will have a better understanding of our position after we have had a chance to talk to them," Mr. Ward said.

"The hospitals are being placed in an impossible position."

"The wage boosts were granted either through arbitration or because they were completely reasonable."

Mr. Ward said each hospital would face different problems if the cutback becomes necessary.

have always enjoyed and we do not wish to see it criticized.

"The hospital administrators have been very worried by the continual criticism of the government and would like to know on what basis or whose advice the minister presumes to tell us how many employees we should employ to do a given job. Certainly it is not on the advice of the medical profession or the nursing profession or the hospital administrators' profession."

NO SUCCESS

"Those of us who spend all of our time worrying about these problems have tried to explain our position to the government but without success."

"It is not always possible to gauge the effectiveness of health care in dollars and cents. Take for example the recent discovery and use of the Salk vaccine. Certainly our decisions in this matter were not governed by financial considerations."

"We would all benefit if a sensible study could be made of the staffing needs of our hospitals rather than overall dogmatic statements which do not reflect the true situation for the information of the public."

"I know for a fact that the members of hospital boards have been most conscientious in meeting their heavy responsibilities. The quantity of hospital care in B.C. has shown a terrific increase because of hospital insurance but we should pay some attention to the quality of hospital care. After all, there have been many significant and complicated advances in patient care since the original 'freeze' order."

"Are our people not to have the advantage of these new findings? It is the policy of the Royal Jubilee Hospital to give the best possible hospital care to the people of Victoria and we are fortunate in having the support of our people to make this policy possible."

Gibson Demands Tofino Logger Appear Before Forestry Probe

Former Liberal M.L.A. Gordon Tofino logger Sammy Craig be called before the Sloan Commission to clear Gibson or "perjury."

Commission counsel C. C. Locke and Mr. Gibson were scheduled to confer this afternoon on whether a subpoena should be issued on Mr. Craig. The Tofino logging operator figured in Mr. Gibson's charge of "money talks" issuing of forest management licences.

The former M.L.A. has charged that B.C. Forest Products "bought off" Mr. Craig by offering him 26,000,000 feet of timber if he would withdraw his opposition to the firm's forest management licence application.

This morning's sitting of the commission also heard a bitter statement by Walter Owen, Q.C. counsel for B.C. Loggers' Association, the B.C. Lumber Manufacturers Association and the

Rail-Stuck Royal Family To Take to Air

Charles, Anne Fly First Time

(From UP and CP)

LONDON — Prince Charles, heir to the British throne, and his sister, Princess Anne, will fly for the first time in their lives next Sunday.

The decision to let the Royal children fly from Scotland to England resulted from Britain's paralyzing railway strike which caught the Royal Family at Balmoral Castle in Scotland. The trip between the castle and London normally is made by train.

Queen Elizabeth will fly in a separate plane from the one in which six-year-old Prince Charles and his four-year-old sister will make the trip.

It is a customary precaution not to group top members of British royalty in a single plane.

Buckingham Palace announced the decision, which will be accepted in Britain as an example of democratic action by the Queen. Other parents also are having to travel with their children.

CLOSER TIES PLANNED

Tito, Khrushchev End 7-Year Quarrel

BELGRADE (Reuters)—Russia and Yugoslavia today signed a joint declaration officially ending their seven-year quarrel.

The declaration called for disarmament, a ban on atomic weapons, admission of Communist China to the United Nations, and a solution of the German problem in the interests of world security.

The joint declaration concluded the eight-day visit here of Soviet Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev, Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan.

It put an end to the bitter quarrel between the two countries since Yugoslavia's expulsion from the Cominform in 1948.

The two nations decided on closed economic and cultural ties, including the establishment of peaceful nuclear co-operation.

They also agreed to repatriate each other's nationals and to establish contacts between "social organizations" of their two countries.

Victoria-Port Angeles Run Seen Serviced by Washington Ferries

Strong possibility that Washington State Ferries will step into the Victoria-Port Angeles picture appeared today, as representatives of city, business and tourist interests were reported meeting with officials of the ferry company in Seattle.

Ship thought most likely to enter the service is the Kalakala.

Hector Crombie, managing secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and George I. Warren, commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, left Victoria Wednesday night for an unannounced destination, to talk over the situation with interests they refused to name.

But every indication pointed to a meeting in Seattle with Floyd McDowell, general manager of the state-owned company, and H.G. Swendon, administrative assistant.

promised the company would do everything possible to try for a solution.

It is thought Mr. Crombie and Mr. Warren are pressing the case for use of the Kalakala with facts and figures on the tourist flow on and off the southern part of Vancouver Island.

Meanwhile Stuart Keate, as publisher of The Times, and president of the Chamber of Commerce, replied today to the telegram from N. R. Crump, president of the CPR, which stated no schedule changes could be made this summer.

Text of Mr. Keate's telegram: "Re telegram your company decision on boat services was a bitter disappointment to

Situation 'Impossible', B.C. Association Says

VANCOUVER (CP)—A B.C. Hospitals Association spokesman expressed the hope today that the provincial government will "change its mind" about its "freeze" order on hospital grants, which officials say will cause drastic cutbacks in service.

Percy Ward, executive secretary of BCHA, said a delegation from his organization will still seek more government financial aid despite Health Minister Martin's reaffirmed policy of holding the line on grants to the 1954 level.

The hospital authorities warned in a public statement Wednesday that wage boosts already negotiated this year will force staff layoffs and service cutbacks unless the government is willing to either increase direct grants or raise the $1 co-insurance.

"We think the premier and his cabinet will have a better understanding of our position after we have had a chance to talk to them," Mr. Ward said.

"The hospitals are being placed in an impossible position. The wage boosts were granted either through arbitration or because they were completely reasonable."

Mr. Ward said each hospital would face different problems if the cutback becomes necessary. Services to outside groups who use hospital facilities, layoff of nurses and elimination of specialized services would be necessary, he said.

Masters Challenges Hold-Line Policy

Health Minister Eric Martin's statement that hospitals could cut staffs without reducing hospital service met a sharp challenge today in a statement on the entire hospital situation by George Masters, administrator of Royal Jubilee Hospital.

Mr. Masters questions the whole idea of the government's repeated "freeze" orders on hospital budgets.

Full text of his statement follows: "The cost of hospital care in British Columbia is higher than in other provinces but it is not the fault of the hospitals and why should the members of the Board of Directors be dogged by this continuing regulation known as the 'freeze' order."

"Provincial government employees have not received substantial increases for almost three years and yet the wage rates paid to employees in many categories in provincial hospitals are higher than the rates presently paid in our acute hospitals."

"This must mean that the provincial government has set the pace insofar as pay scales in our hospitals is concerned. This has been true for over 20 years in my personal experience."

"Hospital employees receive wages which compare favorably with other workers in British Columbia—the latest table of statistics from the government shows that we are paying about 1½ per cent less than the average wage for all workers in British Columbia."

"Inasmuch as hospital workers are required to work varying shifts throughout the entire 24 hours and must be on (Continued on Page 6)

FREED U.S. FLIERS PLEADED GUILTY

Airmen Reveal Trial Details at Honolulu Press Conference; Reunited With Families

(From UP and AP)

HONOLULU—Four American airmen newly released from Chinese Communist prison camps rushed into the arms of their families today in an emotion-packed reunion that ended more than two years' separation.

The Korean war jet pilots said Wednesday they resisted "brain washing" during more than two years in Red China prisons but pleaded "guilty" to "intruding into China" and "provocative attack."

Asked if a confession was required at their trial, Capt. Harold E. Fisher, Swea City, Iowa, replied: "No, not at the trial."

Asked if they had to sign any confession before the trial, Fischer said after a pause: "I believe I'll wait until I see my lawyer before answering that question."

"That comment will stand for the rest of us," another airman added.

The four said there were attempts to brainwash them but that all attempts were rebuffed.

The jet fighter pilots—captured in the Korean War—made their disclosures at their first press conference since their release Tuesday near Hong Kong.

PLEADED GUILTY

Lt. Col. Edwin L. Heller, Wynnewood, Pa., ranking officer of the group, said: "We knew we were going to be tried four hours before the trial. We knew nothing about it otherwise."

"Our indictment was intruding into China for the harassment of the people and provocative attack," he said.

"They had all the evidence—the aircraft. We pleaded guilty."

Heller declined to say whether the four had landed north of (Continued on page 29)
